

HOME RULE BILL OUTLINED ATTEMPT TO END STRIKE

LORD CHURCHILL

And John E. Redmond Address Big Meeting at Belfast, Ireland

BELFAST, Ireland, Feb. 8.—The essential features of the Liberal government's Home Rule bill to be introduced into the British parliament were set forth for the first time today in the course of a speech by Winston Spencer Churchill, the first lord of the admiralty. The bill is to contain provisions for a fair representation in the two houses of the Irish parliament of all classes of the Irish people, and restrictions will be placed on the passing of laws or the imposition of taxes which might be unjust to any party, while religious freedom is to be secured. The military forces in Ireland are to be controlled by the imperial government but the police after a period of years will be under local control and Ireland is to control its own finances, while the imperial government will continue its land purchases and pensions schemes. The threatened disturbance did not take place.

Continued to last page

and influenced them to strike and to use violence. The leader stated there was nothing to any such report. A man named Hassan Bistch, a merchant at Manchester, N. H., had come here, hearing of the strike to aid them if it was found necessary but he had counseled peaceful methods.

DANCE TONIGHT AT ASSOCIATE HOT WATER HEATER

Big One Being Installed at City Hall

A 250 horse power hot water heater is being installed in the fire room at city hall. The heater cost $400 and it is expected that it will show a saving of at least 100 tons of coal a year. The heater will be installed under the direction of Engineer Thomas Harkins. The work of heating the water from the mains will be dispensed with. The heater will feed the water back to the boilers at a temperature of 212.

Main Froze Up

The thawing out of a six-inch main in Broadway yesterday forenoon by the Lowell Electric Light company was watched with considerable attention. The main is located between Rote and Pawtucket streets and Supt. Thomas said it was quite a bad freeze up. The electricity, however, performed the thawing out process in less than two hours.

SAGAMORES, TONIGHT, ASSO. MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

A meeting of the municipal council, called ostensibly for the purpose of going over the department estimates and incidentally to conduct what other business that might come before it, was held this afternoon. The meeting was scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock but it did not start on time. The usual crowd was present and there were few vacant seats.

Mayor O'Donnell read a letter from the Mansfield board of trade relative to the abolition of grade crossings and explaining a certain act now before the legislature. The proposition is to have the steam railroad pay a greater percentage of the expense connected with the abolition of grade crossings than is being paid at the present time. The letter was accompanied by a resolution. The communication was received and placed on the agenda.

Mayor O'Donnell recommended that the Mansfield board of trade be invited to the grade crossing proposition and the matter was turned over to the mayor and commissioner of highways and streets.

Arthur Genest's petition for a sewer in Viola street, about 300 feet in length, was read and Mr. Cummins moved that it be referred to the commissioner of streets and highways.

Mayor O'Donnell thought it would expedite matters to have a public hearing on such petitions rather than to have it go to one commissioner and have him report back to the full board.

It was finally voted to refer the petition to the commissioner of streets and highways.

Thomas M. O'Sullivan, through his counsel, John W. McGowan, gave notice of suit for personal injury and the matter was properly referred.

Mine's orch, Prescott hall, tonight

QUICKLY REMOVES HAIRS WITHOUT SLIGHTEST PAIN

(From Bonjour Secrets)
Persons having unnecessary (ridiculous) hair will be interested in a powder called delatone. Delatone is mixed with water to form a paste and spread on the hairy surface. After two or three minutes it is removed and the skin washed.

The ease and quickness with which this method removes every trace of hair or fuzz is most pleasing, and though druggists charge a dollar an ounce for delatone, it is worth many times its cost because of the absence of pain when using it and the satisfactory results always following. One should be exercised, however, to see that you get the genuine delatone and not an imitation.

VALENTINES

Best for the Money
A complete and up-to-date
Assortment of Cards and
Novelties
J. A. McEVoy, 79 Merrimack St.

15 YEARS FITTING GLASSES ACCURATELY

J. A. McEVoy Optician
232 Merrimack Street.

PLANS DISCUSSED

By Mayor Scanlon and State Legislators to Settle Lawrence Trouble

LATEST FEATURES OF STRIKE

Attempt to end the strike made today.
Committee of state legislature visited Lawrence and conferred with Mayor Scanlon.
House committee on labor at Washington keeping close watch on situation in Lawrence.
Most of the mills made slight gains in number of employees.

LAWRENCE, Feb. 8.—A systematic attempt was made to settle the textile strike here today by a joint committee of the legislature. Four of the eight members of the committee came to Lawrence at noon and conferred with Mayor Scanlon and officers of the Central Labor Union. The four other members of the committee remained in Boston to confer with the manufacturers in an endeavor to reach a solution of the complicated issues which have developed since the strike began a month ago. The legislators who came here today were Reps. John F. Meany of Blackstone, Ray R. Rideout of Somerville, G. H. Ellis of Newton and William Bellamy of Taunton.

They were met at the station by Maynard Stevenson, secretary of the Central Labor Union, and were escorted to the city hall, where they had a conference with Mayor Scanlon. Rep. Meany said that the conferences in this city would be secret, as publicity might endanger any chance for settlement that exists. The committee has no authority to investigate the situation, the legislature not having adopted Rep. John Sanborn's order authorizing the committee to summons persons, papers, etc. The four legislators who are handling the manufacturers' end of the controversy are: Calvin Coolidge of Northampton, Walter McLane of Fall River and John H. Hunt of Worcester and Rep. Edward Fisher of Westford. The committee has more power than the state board of conciliation and arbitration, but its duties are practically the same.

The situation in Lawrence is being watched by the house committee on labor at Washington, and Chairman Wilson is accumulating, through agents, much information.

Most of the mills made slight gains in the number of employees that worked today, the absence of disorder inducing the timid operatives to return.

Continued to page four

REV. CHAS. J. GALLIGAN

West Newton Priest Appointed Pastor of St. Margaret's

Rev. Charles J. Galligan was today appointed pastor of St. Margaret's church, this city, to succeed the late Rev. John J. Harkins. Fr. Galligan was stationed at St. Bernard's church, West Newton. He was ordained to the priesthood 16 years ago and after his ordination he was assigned to St. Bernard's church, where he remained until today when he was notified to come to this city.

Fr. Galligan was born in Canton, Mass. After attending the schools there he entered Boston college, where he graduated with high honors. During his connection with St. Bernard's church he has endeavored himself to be the parishioners and they respect very much to lose him. While there he organized several societies and was much interested in the work of the children of the parish. Rev. John P. Keeler, pastor of St. Bernard's church, West Newton, said to a Sun reporter that Fr. Galligan was an ideal priest and that the parishioners of St. Margaret's are to be congratulated upon his appointment to their parish. Fr. Galligan arrived in this city today and started on his new duties. He is about 40 years of age and possesses a very pleasing personality.

SAGAMORES, TONIGHT, ASSO.

PASSE TEMPS CLUB

Officers Were Installed
Last Night

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Passe Temps club was held last night in the club room in Cheever street. The meeting was presided over by Eugene A. Tompan and a feature of the evening was the installation of officers followed by a banquet.

Two new members were initiated and the following officers who were recently elected were installed into office: Eugene A. Tompan, president; J. Z. Choudhury, vice-president; Joseph Leitch, secretary; Joseph Leitch, treasurer; J. Noel, Ernest Choudhury, 2nd St. Hilditch and Phyllis Rochette, directors.

After the meeting which came to a close at 11 o'clock, the members and a few invited guests sat around a prebly decorated festive board and a dairy banquet was served. President Tompan presided over the festivities, and there were remarks by the newly installed officers and George Gauthier.

There was also music and singing, the program being: Messrs. Leitch, Joseph Leitch, M. Choudhury, G. Gauthier and Oscar Rochette. Messrs. Thomas Rochette and J. Coulins sang the following: "The Church owns a large camp at Crystal Lake and preparations are being made for the opening, which will take place on the first Sunday in April. The formal opening of the camp will be on the first Sunday in March when the annual two day camp will be held. The committee is looking after arrangements for this and they will be named at the next meeting."

Long Year Girls at O. U. A. M. Fri.

Long Year Girls at O. U. A. M. Fri.

Tooth-Ache

Is real suffering
DR. ALLEN

Old City Hall Building
Can relieve it.

His Eu-Cola

Makes many people happy
each day.

JOIN THE RANKS

COAL LARGE STOCK

LOWEST PRICES
FRED H. ROURKE

LIBERTY SQUARE TEL-1177-1

REFINED GUSPEMAN WOULD like to be a part of your party. Good salary for right party. Address R. S. Sun Office.

No Appetite

"I took Hood's Sarsaparilla when I was a very sick woman, had no appetite, and could not sleep more than three hours a night. I was persuaded by a friend to try it, took two bottles of it, and it greatly benefited me, gave me a good appetite and sound sleep." Mrs. John Baker, 2220 W. Third St., Davenport, Iowa.

It is by purifying the blood, strengthening the nerves and building up the system that Hood's Sarsaparilla restores the appetite and makes sleep sound and refreshing in so many cases. Get it today in liquid form or concentrated tablets called Sarsatabs.

QUIET IN SOUTH LOWELL

No Trouble in the Vicinity of the Rendering Works Today

Everything was quiet and peaceful in the vicinity of the Lowell Rendering works today, and about seven or eight knives and three revolvers. When questioned as to why the knives were in the house, one of the leaders stated that the strikers do not want to carry any arms until the trouble is over. Supt. Welch has the collection on his desk and it is expected that more weapons will be found before the strike is over.

Strikers Statement
Monstafa Abellin, the leader of the strikers, has given out the following statement for publication:

"We wish the people to understand that we are not going to fight, we are not going to destroy property or harm anyone. We wish to see peaceful methods and we mean to go every morning to the entrance to the works and in a peaceful way to urge upon those going to work to stay away in order not to cause us to lose our strike. Last Friday I went to the office of the company and placed our requests before him. Then we went on strike."

The above named officers returned to Lowell about 8:30 o'clock. Patrolmen Dwyer, W. H. Wilson, Joseph A. Clark and Edward Connors remained on duty during the entire day.

A Small Arsenal

The police, yesterday, visited the house at 1180 Lawrence street, where that an outsider had addressed them.

Fragrant Coffee

Are you fond of fragrant
coffee?

Percolating yields a delicious fragrance.

You would like to own an electric percolator.

LOWELL ELECTRIC
LIGHT CORP.

60 Central Street

Interest Begins Next Saturday

AT THE Washington
Savings
Institution
237 CENTRAL STREET

HARD COAL BRIQUETTES

$5.50 per ton

—A GOOD FUEL—

D. T. Sullivan

POSTOFFICE SQUARE. THREE TELEPHONES.

MANY DROWNED

Floods Reported from All Parts of Spain and Portugal

MADRID, Feb. 8.—Serious floods are reported from all parts of Spain and Portugal. Many rivers have overflowed their banks and have inundated entire villages. All communication by rail, water or highway is interrupted.

Fessenden's Worm Expeller

Kills worms in children—only 25c. At All Druggists

NUMBER OF VICTIMS UNKNOWN

MADRID, Feb. 8.—The number of victims of the floods in Portugal is not known. Large numbers of people are being rescued from the flooded districts. The river Douro is raging furiously and has inundated the entire valley. Many people were drowned in the flooded section of the Douro valley.

of the flood currents, others were swept forward with a great mass of debris from the upper part of the river, including uprooted trees and the bodies of cattle and livestock. The number today stood at 25000 to 30000 victims.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Lee, who were married last Monday, returned last night from a brief honeymoon trip and they were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 25 Ford street.

MAYOR O'DONNELL

Sends Business Letter to Other Mayors

Mayor O'Donnell has addressed the following letter to the mayors of the different cities in Massachusetts. The letter has to do with the municipal ownership of water and is self-explanatory.

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 8, 1912. Dear Sir: The city of Lowell has presented a bill to the legislature asking for authority to own, maintain and operate all underground conduits in the streets of Lowell, which I understand there is also a bill of a general nature before that body to give all cities in the commonwealth the same power.

The aim of the Lowell bill is to give the city of Lowell absolute control of its streets, water and the property of the public rather than the public service corporations. The only opposition appears to come from the public service corporations, which they should object to. The city does not intend to take anything without paying for it, while the corporations will have the right to lease the conduits at very reasonable rental. When the city pays for the conduits already constructed, it will receive in return the rentals which will more than offset the interest accruing on the bonds.

We would greatly appreciate any assistance you might give us by taking up the matter with the senators and representatives residing within your municipality and asking their support of the measure in committee and on the floor of the legislature.

Respectfully,
James R. O'Donnell,
Mayor of Lowell.

THE UNEMPLOYED

Applicants for Work Appeal to Mayor

Impressed by the large number of men applying to Mayor O'Donnell for work, within the past few days, His Honor was asked by a reporter of The Sun, relative to the local problem of the unemployed.

In reply Mayor O'Donnell said: "The problem of the unemployed in this city is a most serious one and yet the only solution that I can see at the present time is the coming of spring and the opening of our door work. I have not only the departments over which I have control, but in the others, as some of the applicants do not realize the fact that the mayor is the head of the public safety department only. As far as my own departments are concerned, I have not hired any additional help and have not raised any wages and I have not discharged a single employee."

To the applicants who have applied for work in my department, I have asked them if they desired me to discharge a faithful employee to make room for them and to their honor and credit be it said, invariably they have answered negatively. Much has been said about an increase in the pay-rolls of the health and charity departments during the first month of the new year as compared with January, 1911. The situation being that this increase has come since the beginning of the new government. Nothing could be further from the truth. In the case of the health department an additional $100,000 was paid for the services of the health department in January, 1912, but has been on the books since July, 1911. The situation with regard to the charity department is similar. Last summer the salaries of certain employees of the Charitable Street hospital were increased which meant an increase in the weekly pay-rolls from that time on. The pay-rolls at present correspond with that of each year.

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

A series of three records will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The records will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first record will be on "Machbeth," the second on "Macbeth," and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

There is only one kind of baking powder for the careful housewife to use—the kind that is made from pure Grape Cream of Tartar. The choice of the best home-bakers.

Cleveland's SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

Made from a Superior grade of pure Grape Cream of Tartar.

Makes Light, Flaky

Biscuits, Cake and Pastry

TRIBUTE OF LAITY

To Cardinal O'Connell—Able Reply to Gov. Foss and Others

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—Cardinal O'Connell was the central figure of a great gathering of laymen last night at the Somerset. Five hundred men from all parts of the diocese met to give him a welcome home and to pledge to him in eloquent speeches and stirring outbursts of enthusiasm their love, loyalty and devotion.

They gave tangible manifestation of their feelings by presenting the cardinal with a substantial check, and the cardinal also took away with him a souvenir of the occasion in the form of a magnificent album containing the addresses of welcome from the laity and the names of those who attended the banquet.

Gov. Foss brought greetings in the name of the commonwealth. Mayor Fitzgerald voiced the welcome of the city. Henry V. Cunningham, treasurer, president of the Cathedral Guild, gave a hearty welcome and presented to the cardinal the check and the souvenir album. Joseph H. O'Neil, president of the Catholic Union of Boston, made a strong address in the name of the laity. From Brooklyn, N. Y., Edward Feeney, president of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, brought the greetings of 3,000,000 members of that organization throughout the country.

Continued on page eight.

SENTENCED TO JAIL

Man Found Guilty of Larceny of a Suit of Clothes

Alphonse Bellemare was sentenced to jail for three months by Judge John J. Mahoney in police court this morning after the man had been found guilty of larceny of a suit of clothes belonging to David Matheson of 22 Bridge street.

Matheson testified that he and Albert Tancetti occupy a room at 22 Bridge street and that Sunday afternoon Tancetti brought Bellemare to the room and introduced him as a friend. He was not feeling very well and would have to walk several miles in order to reach his home. Bellemare was given permission to occupy the room in the night.

Monday morning Matheson went to work and returned to the room at noon. He had occasion to go to the clothes closet and at that time saw a suit of clothes for which he had recently paid $15. In the evening when he returned from supper he went to the closet to get the clothes and found they were gone.

Tancetti testified that he and Bellemare went looking for work Monday morning and not being able to secure a job they returned to the room in the afternoon. Tancetti went out and left Bellemare asleep on the bed. Later when he returned he found that Bellemare and Matheson's suit were missing.

The matter was reported to the police and the clothes were traced to a pawnshop and as a result of what the clerk told the officers, Bellemare was placed under arrest.

Bellemare denied that he stole the clothes but said he had been drinking. His story was not plausible and the court after seeing the man guilty of both complaints, ordered him to be sentenced to jail for three months.

with neglecting to provide for his wife, Mary, took up the greater portion of the session of court. The only witnesses heard were the defendant and his wife. She testified that she has a child four years old, and that her husband left her about three weeks ago and since that time has not contributed towards her support. He said he was unable to get much work in the winter time, but always provides for his family when he has work.

Drunken Offenders
Michael P. McDermott, charged with being drunk, was sentenced to the state farm. Arnold McElwain, Henry Hodge and Arthur A. Hanks were each fined $5.

MATRIMONIAL

A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's rectory Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Mr. Michael J. Carroll and Miss Grace Donovan were united in marriage. Mr. John Carroll, a brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Grace Harriman, acted as bridesmaid. After a reception at the home of the groom, the happy couple left for an extended honeymoon which will include Boston, North Adams and New York and they will be at home to their friends at 50 Chapel street, after March 1st.

Good time, Sailer the Club, tonight.

NURITO GUARANTEED TO RELIEVE RHEUMATISM NEURITIS

NO MATTER HOW STUBBORN OR EVEN CHRONIC YOUR CASE MAY BE

NURITO is compounded of U. S. P. Government standard ingredients, free from opiates or narcotics, is palatable and effective. See your physician or druggist of the merits of NURITO—get a box today—send it subject to our guarantee. Refund price if it does not relieve.

NURITO is a proprietary remedy and a patent medicine. Send for further particulars, with unsolicited testimonials from prominent doctors. You know—they will convince you.

Write to RIKER-DEVINE drug store, or will be sent direct by mail on receipt of price—$1 and 25c. boxes. MAGISTRAL CHEMICAL CO., Suite 711, Flatiron Building, New York.

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Cake Sale TOMORROW, FRIDAY, BY THE LADIES OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

BEAUTIFUL Silk and Cotton Novelties

ON SALE TODAY At About 1/2 Price

7000 YARDS of some of the most attractive fabrics made on domestic looms are offered today. A tremendous pre-season purchase enables us to offer these thin summery materials in time for the February sewing. Plain weaves and delightful new jacquard patterns in the most fashionable colorings of the season will be noticed.

Bengaline—Glance—Shironea Silk—Ayesia Silk. Fabrics made to sell at 25c, 23c and 39c.

Only 19c a Yard

SEE MERRIMACK STREET WINDOWS—ON SALE TODAY.

East Section Left Aisle

Specials in Men's Wear

50c Neckties for 25c $1 and $1.50 Gloves only, pair. 50c

Palmer Street Centre Aisle

Our Usual February Sale of WHITE FLOUNCINGS OPENS TOMORROW

This Year We Offer Some 1200 Yards At Particularly Low Prices

In embroidered batiste and Irish effects, 27 inches and 35 inches wide. You may buy the $1.25 and $2.50 grades for a yard. 37c and $1.75

Swiss Embroidered Flowers in conventional and floral designs. The 59c and $1.00 grades for a yard. 39c and 59c

Batiste Bands to match the above, 3 inches wide, regular 75c quality, for a yard. 50c

These embroideries are all new goods from one of the largest importers in this country, beautiful patterns and the most attractive lot we've ever offered. See windows.

On Sale Tomorrow Morning

East Section Centre Aisle

"Just Say" HORLICK'S

It Means Original and Genuine Malted Milk

The Food-drink for All Ages.

More healthful than Tea or Coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Delicious, invigorating and nutritious. Rich milk, malted grain, powder form.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no substitute. Ask for HORLICK'S. Others are imitations.

WHEN YOU ARE HUNGRY AND WANT A HEAL

GOOD DINNER TRY THE

LOWELL INN

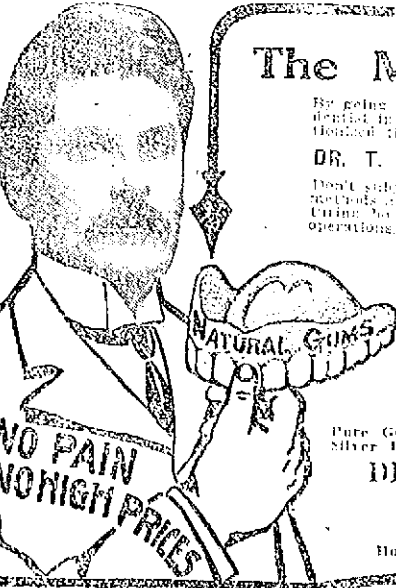

TO LET

All sufferers from piles, old sores and all skin diseases know that ST. THOMAS' SALVE has no equal. Try it. All leading druggists, 35c.

TO NON-RESIDENTS

Send us 25c in stamps and we will mail you the much talked about Dugan-Duplex Demonstrator "Safe Razor." Practically the same razor that you get in the $5.00 outfit. Blades or anything else in the safety razor line sent on receipt, stamps to cover regular selling price. We send the cost of delivering. The safety razor shop, Howard, the Druggist, 197 Central St.

If you want help at home or in your business, try The Sun "Want" column.

The Master of Dental Skill

By going to Dr. King you place yourself in the hands of the foremost dentist in New England, who by his wonderful inventions has revolutionized the science of dentistry.

DR. T. J. KING vs. YOUR LOCAL OLD-STYLE DENTIST Don't subject your nerves to the old style dentist with his antiquated methods and instruments. His painful, nerve-racking probe, his cutting to the bone, and his blood-letting, old-style methods of dental operations, causing heart-rending anguish. Have

DR. KING, THE MODERN DENTIST With the most modern methods do your work PAINLESS, ABSOLUTELY PAINLESS

No old style instruments. The latest that up-to-date dentists have produced for the comfort and pleasure of our patients. Forget your fears. See Dr. King.

SETS TEETH THAT FIT, $5.00 AND $8.00 PAINLESS EXTRACTION FREE! Pure Gold Fillings $1.00 Solid Gold Crowns or Teeth $5.00 Silver Fillings 50c Bridge Work $10.00

DR. THOMAS JEFFERSON KING 65 Merrimack Street, Lowell. OVER HALL & LYONS French Spoken Hours 9 to 8 Sundays 10-12 Phone 1374-2 Lady Attendant

THE INTERVIEW

RUN OVER TO THE STATION AND GET ON INTERVIEW WITH THAT YOUNG FELLOW BEATER!

RETURN TO ME, YOU AGREE!

HOW WOULD YOU MIND SHOWING ME HOW A LITTLE FOUNT LIKE YOU COULD HURT A MAN?

SURE - I WALLOPED HIM A SLEEP PRODUCER LIKE THIS AND THEN FINISHED HIM WITH AN UPPERCUT!

THANKS CAP - I GOT A GOOD INTERVIEW!

I SAY OFFICER, LET ME OUT - THAT LITTLE HEN KNOCKED ME COLD AND BEAT IT IN MY CLOTHES!

Copyright © 2001 by John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

The Industrial Problem

...the ... ..

[illegible]

1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, 2025, 2026, 2027, 2028, 2029, 2030, 2031, 2032, 2033, 2034, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, 2040, 2041, 2042, 2043, 2044, 2045, 2046, 2047, 2048, 2049, 2050, 2051, 2052, 2053, 2054, 2055, 2056, 2057, 2058, 2059, 2060, 2061, 2062, 2063, 2064, 2065, 2066, 2067, 2068, 2069, 2070, 2071, 2072, 2073, 2074, 2075, 2076, 2077, 2078, 2079, 2080, 2081, 2082, 2083, 2084, 2085, 2086, 2087, 2088, 2089, 2090, 2091, 2092, 2093, 2094, 2095, 2096, 2097, 2098, 2099, 2100, 2101, 2102, 2103, 2104, 2105, 2106, 2107, 2108, 2109, 2110, 2111, 2112, 2113, 2114, 2115, 2116, 2117, 2118, 2119, 2120, 2121, 2122, 2123, 2124, 2125, 2126, 2127, 2128, 2129, 2130, 2131, 2132, 2133, 2134, 2135, 2136, 2137, 2138, 2139, 2140, 2141, 2142, 2143, 2144, 2145, 2146, 2147, 2148, 2149, 2150, 2151, 2152, 2153, 2154, 2155, 2156, 2157, 2158, 2159, 2160, 2161, 2162, 2163, 2164, 2165, 2166, 2167, 2168, 2169, 2170, 2171, 2172, 2173, 2174, 2175, 2176, 2177, 2178, 2179, 2180, 2181, 2182, 2183, 2184, 2185, 2186, 2187, 2188, 2189, 2190, 2191, 2192, 2193, 2194, 2195, 2196, 2197, 2198, 2199, 2200, 2201, 2202, 2203, 2204, 2205, 2206, 2207, 2208, 2209, 2210, 2211, 2212, 2213, 2214, 2215, 2216, 2217, 2218, 2219, 2220, 2221, 2222, 2223, 2224, 2225, 2226, 2227, 2228, 2229, 2230, 2231, 2232, 2233, 2234, 2235, 2236, 2237, 2238, 2239, 2240, 2241, 2242, 2243, 2244, 2245, 2246, 2247, 2248, 2249, 2250, 2251, 2252, 2253, 2254, 2255, 2256, 2257, 2258, 2259, 2260, 2261, 2262, 2263, 2264, 2265, 2266, 2267, 2268, 2269, 2270, 2271, 2272, 2273, 2274, 2275, 2276, 2277, 2278, 2279, 2280, 2281, 2282, 2283, 2284, 2285, 2286, 2287, 2288, 2289, 2290, 2291, 2292, 2293, 2294, 2295, 2296, 2297, 2298, 2299, 2300, 2301, 2302, 2303, 2304, 2305, 2306, 2307, 2308, 2309, 2310, 2311, 2312, 2313, 2314, 2315, 2316, 2317, 2318, 2319, 2320, 2321, 2322, 2323, 2324, 2325, 2326, 2327, 2328, 2329, 2330, 2331, 2332, 2333, 2334, 2335, 2336, 2337, 2338, 2339, 2340, 2341, 2342, 2343, 2344, 2345, 2346, 2347, 2348, 2349, 2350, 2351, 2352, 2353, 2354, 2355, 2356, 2357, 2358, 2359, 2360, 2361, 2362, 2363, 2364, 2365, 2366, 2367, 2368, 2369, 2370, 2371, 2372, 2373, 2374, 2375, 2376, 2377, 2378, 2379, 2380, 2381, 2382, 2383, 2384, 2385, 2386, 2387, 2388, 2389, 2390, 2391, 2392, 2393, 2394, 2395, 2396, 2397, 2398, 2399, 2400, 2401, 2402, 2403, 2404, 2405, 2406, 2407, 2408, 2409, 2410, 2411, 2412, 2413, 2414, 2415, 2416, 2417, 2418, 2419, 2420, 2421, 2422, 2423, 2424, 2425, 2426, 2427, 2428, 2429, 2430, 2431, 2432, 2433, 2434, 2435, 2436, 2437, 2438, 2439, 2440, 2441, 2442, 2443, 2444, 2445, 2446, 2447, 2448, 2449, 2450, 2451, 2452, 2453, 2454, 2455, 2456, 2457, 2458, 2459, 2460, 2461, 2462, 2463, 2464, 2465, 2466, 2467, 2468, 2469, 2470, 2471, 2472, 2473, 2474, 2475, 2476, 2477, 2478, 2479, 2480, 2481, 2482, 2483, 2484, 2485, 2486, 2487, 2488, 2489, 2490, 2491, 2492, 2493, 2494, 2495, 2496, 2497, 2498, 2499, 2500, 2501, 2502, 2503, 2504, 2505, 2506, 2507, 2508, 2509, 2510, 2511, 2512, 2513, 2514, 2515, 2516, 2517, 2518, 2519, 2520, 2521, 2522, 2523, 2524, 2525, 2526, 2527, 2528, 2529, 2530, 2531, 2532, 2533, 2534, 2535, 2536, 2537, 2538, 2539, 2540, 2541, 2542, 2543, 2544, 2545, 2546, 2547, 2548, 2549, 2550, 2551, 2552, 2553, 2554, 2555, 2556, 2557, 2558, 2559, 2560, 2561, 2562, 2563, 2564, 2565, 2566, 2567, 2568, 2569, 2570, 2571, 2572, 2573, 2574, 2575, 2576, 2577, 2578, 2579, 2580, 2581, 2582, 2583, 2584, 2585, 2586, 2587, 2588, 2589, 2590, 2591, 2592, 2593, 2594, 2595, 2596, 2597, 2598, 2599, 2600, 2601, 2602, 2603, 2604, 2605, 2606, 2607, 2608, 2609, 2610, 2611, 2612, 2613, 2614, 2615, 2616, 2617, 2618, 2619, 2620, 2621, 2622, 2623, 2624, 2625, 2626, 2627, 2628, 2629, 2630, 2631, 2632, 2633, 2634, 2635, 2636, 2637, 2638, 2639, 2640, 2641, 2642, 2643, 2644, 2645, 2646, 2647, 2648, 2649, 2650, 2651, 2652, 2653, 2654, 2655, 2656, 2657, 2658, 2659, 2660, 2661, 2662, 2663, 2664, 2665, 2666, 2667, 2668, 2669, 2670, 2671, 2672, 2673, 2674, 2675, 2676, 2677, 2678, 26

1. The first step in the process is to identify the problem or issue that needs to be addressed. This involves gathering information and understanding the context of the problem.

---

1

Cardinal O'Connell's HOME COMING

ST AUTHENTIC PICTURES OF
WM. CARDINAL DICOMINI

A political cartoon by J. B. Johnson. It depicts a man in a suit running away from a large barrel labeled "60¢ A BARREL". The man is holding a hat labeled "CONSUMERS". The cartoon is signed "J. B. JOHNSON" in the bottom right corner.

PHOTO PLAYS OF Cardinal O'Connell's

theatre Voyons

MR. CARDINAL O'CONNELL

STRIKE CONFERENCE HELD

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL

Took Up the Matter of Department
Estimates This Afternoon

A meeting of the municipal council, called ostensibly for the purpose of going over the department estimates and incidentally to conduct what other business that might come before it, was held this afternoon. The meeting was scheduled to begin at 2 o'clock but it did not start on time. The usual crowd was present and there were few vacant seats.

Mayor O'Donnell read a letter from the Mansfield board of trade relative to the abolition of grade crossings and explaining a certain act now before the legislature. The proposition is to have the steam railroads pay a greater percentage of the expense connected with the abolition of grade crossings than is being paid at the present time. The letter was accompanied by a resolution. The communication was received and placed on file.

Mayor O'Donnell recommended that the Mansfield board of trade be assisted in the grade crossing proposition and the matter was turned over to the mayor and commissioner of highways and streets.

Arthur Genest's petition for a sewer in Viola street, about 450 feet in length, was read and Mr. Cummings moved that it be referred to the commissioner of streets and highways.

Mayor O'Donnell thought it would expedite matters to have a public hearing on such petitions rather than to have it go to one commissioner and have him report back to the full board.

It was finally voted to refer the petition to the commissioner of streets and highways.

Thomas M. O'Boyle, through his counsel, John W. McEvoy, gave notice of suit for personal injury and the matter was properly referred.

Race Street Engine House

Commissioner Cummings speaking about the Race street engine house said that because it had not been finished and turned over to last year's city council, he, as commissioner of public buildings, had been presented a bill for $4,637.38. Mr. Cummings said there was a dispute between the contractor and the inspector of buildings relative to the time of contract, the inspector claiming that the contractor overran his time 21 days and that the contract says he shall pay a fine of $10 a day for each and every day that he has exceeded the time specified. The contractor, Mr. Towhey, on the other hand states that he completed the contract within 26 days to state and that the city owes him for inside work.

Contractor Towhey was present and said he was willing to waive his claim of the city would do the same. The matter was allowed to rest temporarily.

Mr. Cummings said he would like have a special draft drawn in order that the contractor might be paid.

Department Estimates

At 2:50 o'clock printed copies of department estimates for 1912 were handed the members and the first to receive attention was the school department. This department asks for $420,000. The committee asks for $420,000. The committee asks for $420,000. The committee asks for $420,000.

EXPENDITURES AND ESTIMATES

The expenditures for 1911 and estimates for 1912 as submitted to the city council are as follows:

	Expended 1911	Estimates 1912
Schools	$397,000.00	$420,000.00
Fire Department	176,600.88	207,401.07
Water Works	227,221.61	All Receipts
Park Department	14,319.33	15,000.00
Moth Appropriation	7,000.00	12,000.00
Wires	2,524.29	2,526.00
City Weigher	810.16	810.00
City Messenger	18,588.31	18,600.00
License Commission	5,000.82	4,175.00
Cemeteries	8,730.32	8,001.00
Building Department	23,565.41	28,172.70
Sealer's Department		2,630.00
Street Department	214,938.09	257,000.00
Lighting Streets	100,334.12	104,201.37
Engineering	16,008.00	6,500.00
Auditor's Department	5,956.75	6,881.00
State Aid	40,566.35	40,300.00
Mayor's Office	4,200.00	5,083.55
Out-door Relief	42,852.43	39,113.00
Hospital	62,876.76	66,446.50
Health Department	73,425.97	80,753.52
Library	15,500.00	18,000.00
Police Department	152,206.50	159,919.25
Law Department	5,400.29	5,918.80
Supplies	7,014.20	6,874.26
City Clerk	6,805.16	7,638.00
Elections	9,465.91	8,131.00
Registrars of Voters	5,172.74	5,053.00
Assessors	13,344.65	14,453.60
Treasurer	12,529.00	13,331.32

The estimates, of course, will not look the same when the municipal council gets through with them, and some loud hollering is expected. The biggest increase asked for is by the street department. That department spent $214,938.09 last year, and $257,000.00 is asked for this year, an increase of over $43,000.

Continued to page seven

PLANS DISCUSSED

By Mayor Scanlon and State Legislators to Settle Lawrence Trouble

LATEST FEATURES OF STRIKE

Attempt to end the strike made today.

Committee of state legislature visited Lawrence and conferred with Mayor Scanlon.

House committee on labor at Washington keeping close watch on situation in Lawrence.

Most of the mills made slight gains in number of employees.

LAWRENCE, Feb. 8.—A systematic attempt was made to settle the textile strike here today by a joint committee of the legislature. Four of the eight members of the committee came to Lawrence at noon and conferred with Mayor Scanlon and officers of the Central Labor Union. The four other members of the committee remained in Boston to confer with the manufacturers in an endeavor to reach a solution of the complicated issues which have developed since the strike began a month ago. The legislators who came here today were Reps. John F. Meany of Blackstone, Ray R. Rideout of Somerville, G. H. Ellis of Newton and William Bellamy of Taunton.

They were met at the station by Maynard Stevenson, secretary of the Central Labor Union, and were escorted to the city hall, where they had a conference with Mayor Scanlon. Rep. Meany said that the conferences in this city would be secret, as publicity might endanger any chance for settlement that exists. The committee has no authority to investigate the situation, the legislature not having adopted Rep. John Sanborn's order authorizing the committee to summons persons, papers, etc. The four legislators who are handling the manufacturers' end of the controversy are: Calvin Coolidge of Northampton, Walter McLane of Fall River and John H. Hunt of Worcester and Rep. Edward Fisher of Westford. The committee has more power than the state board of conciliation and arbitration, but its duties are practically the same.

The situation in Lawrence is being watched by the house committee on labor at Washington, and Chairman Wilson is accumulating, through agents, much information.

Most of the mills made slight gains in the number of employees that worked today, the absence of disorder inducing the timid operatives to return.

THE DEMANDS

MADE BY SEVERAL OF THE UNIONS GIVEN OUT TODAY

LAWRENCE, Feb. 8.—At a meeting this morning of the members, speakers and barbers of the four mills of the American Woolen Co., the following demands were formulated:

Fifteen per cent. increase in wages. Days pay on bad work. Abolish premium and bonus system.

The meeting of the spinners of the American Woolen Co. was attended by Italians for the most part and they voted to present the demands originally proposed by the I. W. W. 15 per cent. increase in wages, double pay for overtime, the abolition of the premium and bonus systems and that no discrimination be shown in taking back operatives who had been on strike.

The dyers and finishers added a third grievance to the two made yesterday in which they demand time and a quarter for overtime after 5:30 o'clock time and a half for Saturdays after 12 o'clock and double time for Sundays.

The meeting of the spinners of the Arlington mills scheduled for this forenoon was postponed until Friday night without action in order to get a more representative attendance.

At the suggestion of the I. W. W. strike committee this morning all the members were a low of white ribbon and all sympathizers with the I. W. W. movement will be asked to wear the emblem.

The headquarters were transferred from 321 Common street today to 9 Mason street. Routine business was transacted this morning. W. L. Haywood announced that a statement in regard to yesterday's secret meetings would be given out later in the day.

WARRING FACTIONS

STATE LEGISLATORS WILL TRY TO BRING THEM TOGETHER

LAWRENCE, Feb. 8.—The mission of the state legislators here today was two-fold, first, to bring together for parliamentary action the two warring factions among the operatives, namely those affiliated with the United Textile Workers of America, and the American Federation of Labor, and those identified with the Industrial Workers of the World, and in the second place to bring about a meeting between employers and operatives through their respective representatives.

The conference at the mayor's office lasted more than an hour and during part of that time several attempts were made to get into telephonic communication with W. D. Haywood, the leader of the Industrial Workers of the World, who is assisting in the direction of the strike. Up to 1:30 these efforts had been futile, although one of the members of the executive committee said soon after one o'clock that the committee expected to get into communication with one of the I. W. W. leaders within five or ten minutes.

In the meantime Maynard Stevenson, the representative of the A. F. of L. had entered the mayor's office prepared to meet the representative of the other labor factions in an effort to bring harmony out of the existing rivalry.

Rep. Bellamy, who left the mayor's office for a moment or two, said that the legislators did not know how long they would remain in Lawrence. "We will stay here," said Mr. Bellamy, "until we are successful in our mission or until we are convinced that our errand is a hopeless one."

At 1:30 the committee went to Franco-Belgian hall to confer with the strike leaders.

Continued to page four

pared to meet the representative of the other labor factions in an effort to bring harmony out of the existing rivalry.

Rep. Bellamy, who left the mayor's office for a moment or two, said that the legislators did not know how long they would remain in Lawrence. "We will stay here," said Mr. Bellamy, "until we are successful in our mission or until we are convinced that our errand is a hopeless one."

At 1:30 the committee went to Franco-Belgian hall to confer with the strike leaders.

Continued to page four

SAGAMORES, TONIGHT, ASSO.

BOARD OF TRADE

Received More Propositions for Membership

The second weekly meeting of the members of the five teams appointed to boost the membership of the Lowell board of trade to 100, was held at the New American House at noon today and after an excellent meal had been discussed the captains of the various teams reported and it was found that 25 people had signed their intention of joining the ranks of the bustling organization.

Last week 15 propositions were received and inasmuch as the number of propositions received during the present week is almost double that of last week there is little doubt that the 100 mark will soon be reached.

Capt. Henry Doubleday's team reported that nine propositions had been received. Capt. Alvin R. Campbell's team secured the names of seven men who signified their intention of joining the ranks, and Captains H. Hutchins Parker and John H. Murphy stated that each had secured six new names.

Leap Year Girls at O. U. A. M. Fri.

A meeting of Lowell chauffeurs chapter of the Chauffeurs' Federation of America will be held at the Lowell garage tonight when the chapter will be closed.

Tooth-Ache

Is real suffering

DR. ALLEN

Old City Hall Building

Can relieve it.

His Eu-Cola

Makes many people happy

each day.

JOIN THE RANKS

SEN. BARLOW'S BILL

May be Reported by the Committee

A hearing was given at the state house today on Sen. Barlow's stock transfer bill.

Senator Barlow and Charles Andrews spoke in favor of the measure and it was opposed by a representative of the stock brokers. It is said that the committee on taxation will report the bill and that it will pass. The tax commissioner says it will mean an increase of from $50,000 and $100,000 in the state's revenues.

Leave to Withdraw

The committee on education at the legislature action on the bill on educational education presented by John Jacob Rogers of this city, today reported leave to withdraw.

DANCE TONIGHT AT ASSOCIATE

MAN BLOWN TO PIECES

Main Building of Big Auto Station
Wrecked by Explosion

MERIDEN, Conn., Feb. 8.—Adam J. Englehardt was blown to pieces and the main building of the Meriden Auto station which was owned by him and located on West Main street near the center of the city was wrecked this morning by an explosion of gas. Four large automobiles housed there were caught under the wreckage and very badly damaged if not ruined. Windows in nearby buildings were shattered and the shock was felt for half a mile.

The cause has not been determined. Several persons were in another part of the establishment, but escaped practically unhurt. Englehardt was 42 years old and unmarried.

SAGAMORES, TONIGHT, ASSO.

Miner's orch. Prescott hall, tonight.

No Appetite

"I took Hood's Sarsaparilla when I was a very sick woman, had no appetite whatever, and could not sleep more than three hours a night. I was persuaded by a friend to try it, took two bottles of it, and it greatly benefited me, gave me a good appetite and sound sleep." Mrs. John E. Ekins, 2220 W. Third St., Davenport, Iowa.

It is by purifying the blood, strengthening the nerves and building up the system that Hood's Sarsaparilla restores the appetite and makes sleep sound and refreshing in so many cases. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

Fragrant
Coffee

Are you fond of fragrant
coffee?

Percolating yields a delicious fragrance.

You would like to own an electric percolator.

LOWELL ELECTRIC
LIGHT CORP.

60 Central Street

VALENTINES

Best for the Money
A complete and up-to-date
Assortment of Cards and Novelties

J. UDD, 79 Merrimack St.

15 YEARS FITTING GLASSES

ACCURATELY

J. A. McEVY Optician

232 Merrimack Street.

COAL LARGE STOCK
LOWEST PRICES
FRED H. ROURKE
LIBERTY SQUARE TEL-11773

Interest Begins
Next Saturday

AT THE Washington
Savings
Institution

207 CENTRAL STREET

HARD COAL BRIQUETTES

$5.50 per ton

—A GOOD FUEL—

D. T. Sullivan

POSTOFFICE SQUARE. THREE TELEPHONES.

CAPIAS WRITS ISSUED

Monday is Set for Arrest in the Dynamite Cases

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The Indiana state police are expected to arrive in Lowell on Monday morning to arrest the defendants in the dynamite cases. The police are expected to arrive in Lowell on Monday morning to arrest the defendants in the dynamite cases. The police are expected to arrive in Lowell on Monday morning to arrest the defendants in the dynamite cases.

It is expected that the defendants in the dynamite cases will be arrested on Monday morning. The police are expected to arrive in Lowell on Monday morning to arrest the defendants in the dynamite cases. The police are expected to arrive in Lowell on Monday morning to arrest the defendants in the dynamite cases.

FATHERS' NIGHT

NOVEL AND ENJOYABLE EVENT AT FIRST TRINITARIAN CHURCH

There was a very novel and enjoyable event at the First Trinitarian Church last night. The event was a fathers' night, and it was very successful. The fathers of the children in the church were invited to attend, and they all came. The event was very enjoyable, and it was a great success.

The fathers' night was a very successful event. The fathers of the children in the church were invited to attend, and they all came. The event was very enjoyable, and it was a great success.

DOCTORS

GAVE HER UP

Mrs. Stuart Finally Saved By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Story Interesting.

Elmo, Mo.—"I think your Vegetable Compound is wonderful for it has helped me. I had four doctors and they said I had female troubles and a tumor and nothing but an operation would help me. I could not sit still long enough to eat, and could sleep hardly any I was in so much misery with pains in my side and back.

"A year ago last spring my doctor gave me up, and he was surprised to see me this spring and to see my condition. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise whenever I go for I know I would not be here today or have my fine baby boy if I had not taken it."

—Mrs. SARAH J. SEABY, R.F.D. No. 2, Box 16, Elmo, Mo.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

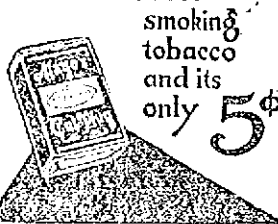

We challenge anyone to name even one other medicine that has been so successful in relieving woman's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

REAL BURLEY!

—the best tobacco grown

That's what you get in

Mayo's CUT PLUG

smoking tobacco and its only 5¢

COLEMAN HIGH MAN

Bowled With Lowell at Nashua Last Night

Several good games were played on the alleys last night. A team representing Lowell bowled at Nashua last night and lost the first game, but won the second. The Lowell team was high man with a total of 213.

BRYAN COLEMAN

the first string and the total. Coleman of the Lowell team was high man of the evening with a total of 213. The score:

Nashua—Bagnall, 255; Adams, 255; McQuinn, 255; Pinnick, 276; Travers, 212. Totals, 1427.

Lowell—Dunham, 253; Mayo, 279; Dunham, 273; Martel, 234; Coleman, 212. Totals, 1405.

Each Takes Two Points

The Promenades and the Lamson Raptids split even in a game on the Crescent alleys last night. MacDonald of the Lamson team was high man with a total of 282. The score:

Promenades—Rousseau, 260; Prescott, 257; Mullen, 253; Stewart, 266; Davis, 254. Totals, 1330.

Lamson Raptids—Grant, 267; Humphrey, 252; MacDonald, 243; Poyler, 253; MacDonald, 259. Totals, 1315.

Manchester Unity League

Wamslett—Lewiss, 308; Fernley, 251; Adams, 253; Hamilton, 266; Marsden, 212. Totals, 1330.

Excelsior—W. Houston, 239; Oddie, 259; Rappaport, 253; Camps, 254; J. Houston, 254. Totals, 1186.

Intelligents—Hendley, 259; Chase, 243; A. Hudson, 217; McQuinn, 256; W. Hudson, 250. Totals, 1261.

Merrimack Valley—Gordon, 267; Grist, 218; Subb, 236; Dunkley, 241; Judd, 258. Totals, 1232.

Cloth Room Wins

Lowell High Team

LOWELL HIGH TEAM

Meets Tech. Freshmen Saturday Evening

The Lowell High school track team, under the careful coaching of Mr. Fardney, is training hard for the meet on Saturday evening. The local boys will have for their opponents the Tech Freshmen. The latter team is composed of some of the best athletes in the state. In the meet are familiar stars of some of the local and prep schools. Lowell will take no chances, but if hard training will prevent it. The boys are confident of a victory, but realize that they will have to keep lively.

In the visiting team Everett Pearson, a former Lowell high athlete, will appear. It is expected that Captain Leggat will be in the Lowell lineup.

Lowell High Won

The recently organized Lowell High school hockey team won its opening game yesterday by defeating the Tech school team on the Vesper rink. The Lowell team won by the score of 3 to 1.

High School

CHILD'S BUSTER BROWN LEGGINS, jersey and bear-skin, assorted colors. Reg. prices $1 and $1.25. 29c

J. L. CHALIFOUX 49 to 59 CENTRAL ST.

YOUTHS' RUBBERS, low cut, wide toes, sizes 11 to 2. Reg. price 45c, at..... 25c

Three Days' WAIST SALE

$4, $6, $8 and $10 WAISTS AT $2.89 EACH

571 taffeta, messaline and chiffon waists, the clean-up of the entire sample line of a large New York manufacturer. All this spring season's styles, sizes 34 to 44. Sixty different styles in the lot and every one a winner.

SALE STARTS TOMORROW MORNING

Main Floor

Waist Department

See Corner Window

—FINAL CLEAN UP OF—

LADIES' COATS, SUITS and FURS

9 CARACUL COATS. Reg. price $15. Clean up price..... $6.89	1 FANCY TRIMMED CONEY SET. Reg. price $40. Clean up price..... $18.50	60 LONG COATS. Reg. prices $10 to $20. Clean up price..... $5.00
8 RUSSIAN PONY COATS. Reg. price $32.50. Clean up price..... $7.89	1 WHITE FUR SET. Reg. price $45. Clean up price..... $10	17 ONE-PIECE DRESSES. Reg. prices $13 to $20. Clean up price..... $3.00
3 CONEY COATS. Reg. price $30. Clean up price..... $15.89	1 MINK MUFF. Reg. price $35. Clean up price..... $35.89	27 SLIP-ON RAINCOATS. Reg. price $3. Clean up price..... $1.59
4 MARMOT COATS. Reg. price $50. Clean up price..... $34.89	A Few Odd MUFFS. Reg. price $5.00. Clean up price..... $1.98	3 LONG BLACK COATS. Reg. price $5. Clean up price..... $1.89
1 TRIMMED CONEY COAT. Reg. price $40. Clean up price..... $24.89	A Few Odd NECKPIECES. Reg. prices $5 and $7. Clean up price..... $2.95	1 PLUSH COAT. Reg. price $30. Clean up price..... $17.95
1 NATURAL RACCOON SET. Reg. price $40. Clean up price..... $23.89	59 SUITS, different styles. Reg. prices $15 to $25. Clean up price..... $9.89

Clean Up Sale of Women's Shoes

16 Different Styles—Goodyear Welts and Hand Turned

PATENT COLT BUTTON, plain toe, cloth tops, short vamps, high heels.

$3.00 and $3.50

SHOES at

$1.59

GUN METAL BLUCHER, wide and narrow toe, short vamps, Cuban and low heels, all sizes.

GUN METAL BUTTON, narrow toe and Cuban heels, calf and cloth tops, tip and plain toe.

VICI KID, button and blucher, kid and patent tip, Cuban heel.

Importers' Bazaar

(INCORPORATED)

102 Gorham Street.

536 Merrimack Street.

SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY Best Salt PORK 9 1/2c Lb.

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY New Crop CORN 6 1/2c Can Best Creamery BUTTER 36c Lb.

Best Molasses 12c Bazaar Brand Soap 5c Cooking Molasses 9c Bazaar Lemon Ex. 7c and 9c Celery Salt 1 1/2c Bazaar Vanilla Ex. 9c

Fresh Roasted Coffee. Try a Sample Pound

Delicious New Teas, Full Bodied, Fragrant, All Flavors

Coffee 22c Lb. Teas 25c Lb.

There is Only One "Bromo Quinine"

That is Laxative Bromo Quinine

USED THE WORLD OVER TO CURE A COLIC IN ONE DAY.

Always remember the full name. Look for this signature on every box. 25c.

E. W. Grove

attendance and both the supper and the comedy were enjoyed.

The one-act play, entitled "Which Is Which," was presented by young people of the Grace Universalist church, assisted by members of the First Congregational church. The offering proved a round of laughter and was unusually well presented. The cast was as follows:

Robert Capper, an artist, Robert Black, Mr. Gargle, his uncle, Carl Rogers; Paddles, old and color man, Willard Parker; Margaret, Paula, waitress, Bertha M. Abbott; Helen Bingham, her penurious friend, Nella P. Snow; Chloe, her devoted maid, Marjorie Eads. Scene, Capper's studio.

The supper was under the direction of Mrs. N. L. Pevey and Mrs. James H. McKinley was in charge of the entertainment.

CHELMSFORD

A Communion supper and entertainment was held in the Central Congregational vestry last night, arranged under the direction of Miss Lillian Kimbrough and it was a great success. Supper was served between 6.30 and 7.00 after which an enjoyable program was carried out. The latter included the following: Piano solo, Miss Grace Dupee; tableaux, by the children, "The Family Day Out," by Miss Lillian Kimbrough; the girls, Miss Helen Kimbrough, Elsie Carr; the chorists, Gertrude Wilson, Rita Carr, Dorothy Carr; interpreted songs, Rose, Fred, Harold Linard, Gertrude Wilson; chorals by the children, Bobbie, Florence Linard and Theodore Chandler; singing day, Harold Rydman, Rex, the chorists; "Home," and the hymns, Ralph Boyd, singing by chorus; the

Watch for Signs of Sickness

Mothers! Never overlook "trifling" symptoms in your children—the "little things" that indicate all too plainly the imminent danger of disease. If your child is listless, or peevish—then it is high time for you to take precautions. A few doses right now of that wonderful family remedy—

DR. TRUE'S ELIXIR

The Family Laxative and Worm Medicine

may prevent a sickness later. Dr. True's Elixir acts as a gentle laxative to relieve the body of poisonous waste matter from stomach and bowels. Restores appetite. Gives restful sleep and an abundance of healthy blood. It expels all worms from children and adults.

Dr. True's Elixir is a safe and simple vegetable preparation with wonderful tonic properties—a standard family remedy for more than 30 years. Your druggist has it—or get it to-day.

36c, 50c, $1.00.

DR. J. F. TRUE & CO., Auburn, Me.

MANY DROWNED

Floods Reported from All Parts of Spain and Portugal

MADRID, Feb. 8.—Serious floods are reported from all parts of Spain and Portugal. Many rivers have overflowed their streams and banks, inundating entire villages. All communication by rail, water or highway is interrupted and this fact is preventing the despatch of help to the stricken towns.

NUMBER OF VICTIMS UNKNOWN

LISBON, Feb. 8.—The number of victims of the floods in Portugal is not yet known but it will be large. Large numbers of injured are being cared for in hospitals in the flooded districts. The river Tagus is a raging torrent, carrying seaward on its tempestuous current corpses and merchandise of all kinds. Many barges which were anchored in the navigable section of the Tagus were sunk at the first onslaught of the flood current; others were swept seaward with a great mass of debris from the upper part of the river, including uprooted trees and the bodies of cattle and livestock. Crops throughout the flooded district are ruined and all communication by wire is severed.

The chamber today voted $500,000 to aid victims of the disaster. Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Leclair, who were married last Monday, returned last night from a brief honeymoon trip and they were given a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 36 Ford street.

Fessenden's Worm Expeller

Kills worms in children—only 25c. At All Druggists

LOWELL, THURSDAY, FEB. 8, 1912

A. G. POLLARD CO.

THE STORE FOR THRIFTY PEOPLE

Cake Sale TOMORROW, FRIDAY, BY THE LADIES OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

BEAUTIFUL Silk and Cotton Novelties

ON SALE TODAY
At About 1/2 Price

7000 YARDS of some of the most attractive fabrics made on domestic looms are offered Today. A tremendous pre-season purchase enables us to offer these thin summery materials in time for the February sewing. Plain weaves and delightful new jacquard patterns in the most fashionable colorings of the season will be noticed.

Bengaline—Glaze—Shinoda Silk—Ayesia Silk. Fabrics made to sell at 25c, 29c and 39c.

Only 19c a Yard

SEE MERRIMACK STREET WINDOWS—ON SALE TODAY.

East Section

Left Aisle

Specials in Men's Wear

50c Neckties for.....25c $1 and $1.50 Gloves only, pair.....50c

Palmer Street

Centre Aisle

Our Usual February Sale of WHITE FLOUNCINGS OPENS TOMORROW

This Year We Offer Some 1200 Yards At Particularly Low Prices

In embroidered batiste and Irish effects, 27 inches and 45 inches wide. You may buy the $1.25 and $2.50 grades for a yard.....87c and $1.75
Swiss Embroidered Flowers in conventional and floral designs. The 59c and $1.00 grades for a yard.....39c and 59c
Batiste Bands to match the above, 3 inches wide, regular 75c quality, for a yard.....50c

These embroideries are all new goods from one of the largest importers in this country, beautiful patterns and the most attractive lot we've ever offered. See windows.

On Sale Tomorrow Morning

East Section

Centre Aisle

MAYOR O'DONNELL

Sends Business Letter to Other Mayors

Mayor O'Donnell has addressed the following letter to the mayors of the different cities in Massachusetts. The letter has to do with the municipal ownership of conduits and is self-explanatory:

Lowell, Mass., Feb. 8, 1912.
Dear Sir: The city of Lowell has presented a bill to the legislature asking for authority to own, maintain and operate all underground conduits in the streets of Lowell, while I understand there is also a bill of a general nature before that body to give all cities in the commonwealth similar power.

The aim of the Lowell bill is to give the city of Lowell absolute control of its streets, which are the property of the public, rather than the public service corporations. The only opposition appears to come from the public service corporations though why they should object we cannot understand. The city does not intend to take anything without paying for it, while the corporations will have the right to lease the conduits at very reasonable rental.

When the city pays for the conduits already constructed, it will receive in return, the rentals which will more than offset the interest accruing on the bonds.

We would greatly appreciate any assistance you might give us by taking up the matter with the senators and representatives residing within your municipality and in committee and on the floor of the legislature.

Respectfully,
James E. O'Donnell,
Mayor of Lowell.

THE UNEMPLOYED

Applicants for Work Appeal to Mayor

Impressed by the large number of men applying to Mayor O'Donnell for work, within the past few days, His Honor was asked by a reporter of The Sun, relative to the local problem of the unemployed.

In reply Mayor O'Donnell said: "The problem of the unemployed in this city is a most serious one and yet the only solution that I can see at the present time is the coming of spring and the opening of out-door work. I have had many applications for work, in not only the departments over which I have control, but in the others, as some of the applicants do not realize the fact that the mayor is the head of the public safety department only. As far as my own departments are concerned, I have not hired any additional help and have not raised any wages and I have not discharged a single employee. To men who have applied for work in my departments I have asked them if they desired me to discharge a faithful employee to make room for them and to their honor and credit be it said, invariably they have answered negatively. Much has been said about an increase in the pay-rolls of the health and charity departments during the first month of the new year as compared with January, 1911, the intimation being that this increase has come since the incoming of the new government. Nothing could be further from the truth. In the case of the health department an additional $1000 was put into service last July necessitating the employment of additional men. If any critic will take the trouble to look he will readily see that the increase pointed out did not originate in January, 1912, but has been on the books since July, 1911. The situation with regard to the charity department increase is similar. Last summer the salaries of certain employees of the Chestnut Street hospital were increased which meant an increase in the salary pay-roll from that time out. The pay-roll of present corresponds with that of each preceding week back to the time of the granting of those increases in salaries and hence it is nothing with which this government had anything to do."

A series of three recitals will be given at Colonial hall for the benefit of the local playgrounds. The recitals will be given by Marshall Darrach and will be held on Feb. 13, 20 and 27. The first recital will be on "Midsummer Night's Dream," the second on "Alcebat" and the third on "Comedy of Errors."

Alphonse Bellemare was sentenced to jail for three months by Judge John J. Pickman in police court this morning after the man had been found guilty of drunkenness and the larceny of a suit of clothes belonging to David Mathieu of 32 Bridge street.

Mathieu testified that he and Gilbert Turcotte occupy a room at 32 Bridge street and that Sunday afternoon Turcotte brought Bellemare to the room and inasmuch as Bellemare claimed he was not feeling very well and would have to walk several miles in order to reach his home, Bellemare was given permission to occupy the couch in the room for the night.

Monday morning Mathieu went to work and returned to the room at noon. He had occasion to go to the clothes closet and at that time saw a suit of clothes for which he had recently paid $15. In the evening when he returned from supper he went to the closet to get the clothes and found they were gone.

Turcotte testified that he and Bellemare went looking for work Monday morning and not being able to secure a job they returned to his room in the afternoon. Turcotte went out and left Bellemare asleep on the bed. Later when he returned he found that Bellemare and Mathieu's suit were missing.

The matter was reported to the police and the clothes were traced to a pawnshop and as a result of what the clerk told the officers, Bellemare was placed under arrest.

Bellemare denied that he stole the articles but said he had been drinking. His story was not plausible and the clerk after finding the man guilty on both complaints, ordered him to be sentenced to jail for three months for larceny and placed the complaint of drunkenness on file.

Assault and Battery
Hessan Youssouf entered a plea of not guilty to a complaint charging him with assault and battery on Thomas Breen and at the request of counsel the case was continued till Saturday morning. Youssouf is one of the strikers at the Lowell Rendering Co.'s works and it is alleged that he assaulted Breen without any provocation whatsoever.

Neglected His Wife
The case of Joseph Greiner charged with neglecting to provide for his wife, Mary, took up the greater portion of the session of court. The only witnesses heard were the defendant and his wife. She testified that she has a child four years old and that her husband left her about three weeks ago and since that time has not contributed towards her support. He said he was unable to get much work in the winter time, but always provides for his family when he has work.

Drunken Offenders
Michael F. McDermott, charged with being drunk, was sentenced to the state farm. Arnold McGowan, Henry Hodge and Arthur A. Hanks were each fined $5.

MATRIMONIAL
A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's rectory Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock, when Mr. Michael J. Carroll and Miss Grace Donovan were united in marriage. Mr. John Carroll, a brother of the groom, was best man and Miss Grace Hanrahan, acted as bridesmaid. After a reception at the home of the groom, the happy couple left for an extended honeymoon which will include Boston, North Adams and New York and they will be at home to their friends at 50 Chapel street, after March 1st.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

Good time, Sailor Tie Club, tonight.

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1911 was 15,442

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Plottie, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1912. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

Mayor O'Donnell will win the gratitude of Lowell citizens generally if he can stop the Moffatt pension. If there is any legal step to block it, that should be taken.

Lowell should be well represented at the meeting in Haverhill tomorrow night to boost the movement to make the Merrimack river navigable. It is one of great importance to all the cities and towns in the Merrimack valley.

FOR STATE REFERENDUM

Senator Ticknor's bill now before the legislature to permit a state-wide referendum is one that should be generally favored. It is time a law was enacted by which any question of public importance could be submitted to the voters throughout the state. No such law can be enacted without an amendment of the constitution as a preliminary, and that should be done as soon as possible.

LAWS TO PROMOTE INDUSTRIAL PEACE

In view of the prevalence of strikes in industries of all kinds, is it not advisable to enact in this state a law similar or even more sweeping than the Canadian law for the promotion of industrial peace?

The situation at Lawrence is a reflection upon our state legislators in the fact that there is no law to restrict or settle such conflicts between employer and employee.

Is it not time that something were done by the legislature to protect the parties directly involved and also the general public which suffers indirectly from the stagnation and paralysis of business?

The legislature is to investigate the causes of the strike. Of what benefit will that be to the people of Lawrence or more particularly to the strikers and the mill operators?

None whatever, for the legislature under the existing laws has no more power over the parties to the strike than has the city government of Lawrence and that has already been proved to be a negative quantity.

Where is the utterly useless State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration? That board appeared on the scene at an early stage in the trouble and then vanished, unable to do anything looking to industrial peace.

What then is the remedy? What, but a law that will prevent such conflicts, such public disturbance and such paralysis of business? What are the features of such a law?

We have but to cross the border to Canada to find in the law there in operation provision for the investigation of industrial disputes before a lockout or strike can be legally declared.

Perhaps it might be said that the constitution would stand in the way of such an enactment; but it is difficult to see how the constitution can be violated by a law providing for a method of settling labor disputes and thus preventing them from inflicting serious loss upon the general public or in other words upon thousands who have no part whatever in the controversy.

The Canadian law for the investigation of industrial disputes is favored by trades unions as well as by the employers of labor. It provides that in the event of a dispute arising in any industry known as a public utility, it shall be illegal to resort to a strike or lockout until the matters in dispute have been laid before a board of investigation. Such a board is appointed by the minister of labor on the application of either party. One of its members is named by each side and these appoint a third or on their failure to agree the third is chosen by the minister of labor.

The proceedings and final recommendations are widely published for their effect upon public opinion. Then if the parties, or either of them, refuse to abide by the decision of the board a lockout or strike may be legally declared. Even if the report of the board be rejected, it has the effect of elucidating the issues involved so that both sides have clearer ideas as to the points in dispute. Besides, the public at large will usually condemn the side that refuses to accept the finding of the investigation board. After the investigation the board has no power to force an acceptance of its advice by the contending parties, but it has prevented a hasty strike and laid down a fair basis of settlement. In this case the investigation is positive and almost always prior to a strike or lockout because it is an offence punishable by law to strike without first applying for an investigation of the dispute.

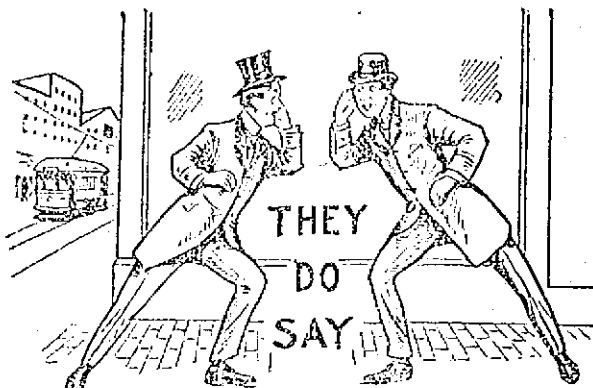

The Canadian law applies only to public utilities; but where strikes in other industries inflict so much injury upon the public, we do not see why the same provisions should not apply to all industries.

In the city of Lawrence at the present time there is a vast expense incurred for police and military service in the preservation of the peace and the protection of property. There is also an increased expense for the support of those reduced to destitution by the strike or lockout.

Is not that a reason why the public should be protected against such prolonged conflicts? There are many other reasons of even more importance, but in spite of all, our legislators do not seem to have taken any practical step towards a remedy. All the people want industrial peace, all want to avoid the disastrous results of industrial warfare. Let us have such a law as is now giving great satisfaction in Canada and the public will be protected against the industrial warfare that has cost enormous loss, that has resulted in fatal conflicts, that has reduced thousands to the verge of starvation, and has rendered business of all kinds unstable and insecure.

This is not a compulsory arbitration law such as is in force in New Zealand. It deprives the parties in conflict of no privilege of any kind except that of striking hastily and without a proper investigation. The inquiry often exposes the injustice on one side or the other in such a manner that the party appearing so unfair has a poor case with which to go before the bar of public opinion in a strike or lockout. Thus this law to a great extent serves the same purpose as compulsory arbitration while having none of its constitutional objections.

That there should be compulsory arbitration in industries of public utility is obvious, but any attempt to fix wages by legislation or even by judicial decree in the ordinary industries has almost always resulted in failure wherever attempted. The Canadian law goes as far perhaps as any government has a right to go in the disputes between employer and employee, in the interest of both and of the public at large.

That Secretary Hall of the Lowell Baseball team is one of the busiest men in the city.

That the new uniforms of the Lowell team will be of some class.

That the Lowell team made a fine showing at the banquet to Cardinal O'Donnell in Boston last night.

That the "Ladies' Night" on Washington's birthday to be held by the local Elks will be one of the best social events of the year.

That many dances will be held in this city from now until the Lenten season starts.

That several important changes were made at the Bigelow Carpet company recently.

That John Kelly is providing some excellent musical programs at the Sacred Heart church.

That the real baseball dope will soon be available.

That Leo Crowley of the Manhattan club will have some ball team this season.

That many foolish questions are asked over the telephone.

That politics are beginning to hum in the towns.

That a long year proposal was made at the Lawrence history last week.

That the dance of the Sagamore club tonight will be a great success.

That Jim Woods is having a new lunch car built, that, when completed, will be the best in Lowell.

That Dan, the barber, has a new one—application.

That a recent boxing exhibition demonstrated that they can't come back.

That many sleighs and coasting parties are being held this winter.

That Billy Gardner is meeting with much success as matchmaker of the Lowell Social and Athletic club.

That the C. Y. M. L. will have a great time this evening when the members will entertain the C. Y. M. A. of Lawrence and the lady friends of both societies.

That many Lowell people would like to see Rev. James L. MacGuinness return to this city.

That the "Ladies' Night" at the Y. M. C. L. are getting very popular and being attended by large numbers.

That several of the camps at Willow Dale are being touched up for the coming season.

SEEN AND HEARD

Stamp your personality upon your establishment. The possession of a personality is the difference between a store and a business.

True wisdom doesn't come from reading books, but faces.

Prejudice is simply selfishness with its ears tucked under its cap.

It may be true that "every great man had a hobby," but the great capitalist's hobby is always himself.

Whether you're the original clothier in your town doesn't matter half so much as that you're the most original in your merchandise and methods.

It's much pleasanter to sell good goods because you like to, than because you have to.

Some men would rather be known as "foxy" than "square," forgetting that the fox, sooner or later, is tripped and trapped.

If the best houses advertise, that must be the best way to build a business. Some houses need the best way in the worst way.

Senator Beveridge, at a reception in Washington, smiled slightly as an ambassador passed whose coat front was one blaze of decorations.

"They look nice," said Senator Beveridge, "but, after all, they don't mean much."

"An actor," he resumed, "once played in a small German principality for a fortnight. The grand duke, to his disappointment, failed to decorate him. He mentioned this oversight at a court dinner to a chamberlain, and the next day he was sent for."

"My friend," said the grand duke, handing the actor a box, "here is something to remember me by."

"The overjoyed actor departed, but his cab had hardly gone ten yards when, ordering it to return again, the actor was once more ushered into the grand duke's presence."

"O, sir," he said, "I had to drive back. There are two crosses in the box."

"O, no matter," said the grand duke, "give the other to the chamberlain."

Shades of evening close not over us, Leave our lonely bark awhile; Men alone will not restore us, Yonder dim and distant Isle, Sell my fancy can discover.

Sunny spots where friends may dwell, Darker shadows round us hover, Isle of Beauty fare thee well.

'Tis the hour when happy faces Smile around the taper's light; Who will fill our vacant places, Who will sing our songs tonight?

'Tis the hour when the stars above us Shine down on the water's gleam; Like a voice from one who loves us, Breathing fondly, Fare thee well.

When the waves are round us breaking, As I pace the deck alone, And my eye in vain is seeking, Shine green light to rest upon.

Where would I not give to wander, Where my old companions dwell? Absence makes the heart grow fonder— Isle of Beauty, fare thee well.

She had the reputation of being a good woman, the employment agent said, but a terrible stickler for her rights. Work that she considered a part of her legitimate duties she did.

Telephones 1180 and 2480. (When one is busy, call the other.)

COAL, WOOD and COKE

No better fuel enters the Lowell market than I carry in my yards, Gorham and Dix streets. My facilities and equipment put me in a position to make immediate delivery.

John P. Quinn

EDITORIAL COMMENT

One of the awful results of the "dissolution" of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey is reflected in the affairs of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, one of the oleaginous progeny of the great monster. This concern is going to cut a 2500 per cent "melon" and is rejoicing in the fact that since the dismemberment of the family its stock has risen from $1400 to $4100 a share.

Who wouldn't become a commercial and financial orphan under guaranty of that kind of treatment.

THIRD TERM RESOLVE

New York World: Although the house of representatives failed to pass the third-term resolution, this failure is neither significant nor important. If the American people wanted Mr. Roosevelt for president again, they could not be stopped by a congressional resolution. If they were determined to have him in spite of all the experiences of his two administrations, they would deserve to reap the full fruits of their folly. Our own judgment is that the inherent common sense of the American people can be trusted in almost any political emergency.

AN ABRUPT AUTO SIGNAL

Brooklyn Enterprise: An abrupt sounding auto signal is wanted by motorists, according to a story telling about possible legislative action that they may inspire. Why wait for the legislature? If the automobile people really want harmonious action along this line is there anyone stopping them from taking it?

COMMUNICATION

NO EXCHANGE STREET

Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 6, 1912.

Editor Sun: Will you please state through your valuable paper whether or not there is an Exchange street in Lowell. Inasmuch as it is my home city, when a party here claimed that there was an Exchange street in Lowell I said that there was not and the result was that we made a wager. Thanking you in advance for any information which you may be able to give me, I remain, A Subscriber.

There is no Exchange street in this city, but there is an Exchange place which runs from 143 Meadowcroft street, to 353.

BIG BARGAINS

TRUNKS, BAGS and SUIT CASES

AT DEVINE'S

123 MERRIMACK STREET

Repairing, etc. Telephone 2160.

DR. EDWARDS' DANDELION

TABULETS AND PILLS

A Mixture on a Blood Purifier

Say thousands who have used them. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Constipation and Bowel trouble. Best remedy for Liver, Kidney and Stomach. Elimination of poisons from the system without griping. Purely vegetable and guaranteed under Pure Food and Drug Act. Free samples on request to DR. EDWARDS' DANDELION CO., 51 Franklin street, New York. 25 cents a box at HALL & VON CO., 62-64 Merrimack street, Lowell, Mass.

BEATRICE CRAVEN IN "THE FORTUNE HUNTER."

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

In Winchell Smith's successful play, "The Fortune Hunter," that comedy classic which is scheduled for presentation at the Opera House, Feb. 15, 16 and 17, eminently amusing comedy which will arouse emotions of all that is best in our nature, teaches a moral lesson that people may learn in an atmosphere of absolute enjoyment. Lessons learned while we laugh stick closer sometimes than the other kind, and "The Fortune Hunter" is a shining example of this aphorism. The story of "The Fortune Hunter" is most enjoyable, its theme pure and clean, while its dialogue bristles with entertaining character. The stage has rarely seen so honest a play, and if Winchell Smith can continue to teach the virtue of goodness and its value as a guide.

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

Young and old alike enthrall over the daily act of Theo and her Dandies at Keith's this week. Theo's bicycle stunt through the theatre stopping here and there to give a child a ride with her is both entertaining and mystifying for no one can guess by what power she is propelled through the air. She concludes her act with singing and dancing assisted by the Dandies, amid a most charming stage setting. One can hear a pin drop while Alfredo, the vagabond violinist, softly plays "Three Throats Among the Gold" on the violin, bringing forth exquisite tones. Alfredo is a marvel on the violin and whether you are musically inclined or not he has the power to please you. Haviland and Thornton in their extremely funny sketch, "A Question of Policy," keep the audience in a continuous roar. Josh Dale, the Alabama kid, renders parodies and funny songs of his own making. Frank and True Rice, the talking tumblers and head-balers can talk while standing on their heads. Rosalie and Dorotea, the comical clown performers do a number of break-neck stunts that are out of the ordinary. Willard and Bond in "The Battle of Bunker Hill" have an exceedingly humorous sketch depicting the experiences of a German war correspondent with and American army officer and a horse that is fearfully and awfully badly frightened. Hart and Donlay in "After 20 Years," present a sketch containing both humor and sentiment. Then there are the pictures.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Commencing today and continuing throughout the week the feature picture play shown at the Merrimack Square theatre will be a series of life-like portrayals of the incidents in connection with the home-coming celebration of Cardinal O'Connell, at Boston, last week. These pictures are among the very best produced and they in detail everything from the time the sterner Canopic appeared in Boston harbor until the arrival of the cardinal at his residence. Lowell people, more than anyone else, should take a lively interest in these pictures, and no doubt thousands of friends of Cardinal O'Connell will visit the theatre during the three days to come. Some of the Lowell people who participated in the observance are included in these "caught" by the camera men. The other photo-plays will be among the best shown.

"The Bride of Garry Owen," the presentation by Our Stock Company, is winning new friends at each evening performance. Miss Jackson, and Mr. Weston are seen to advantage in it and the other members of the large cast are also efficient in their respective roles. The staging of the play is superbly done. The other contributions to "Irish Week" are "Shirley and Wilbur" in their original sketch and "Crabfoot and Montrose," comedy singers and dancers. On Friday night, between the hours of 7.30 and 9.15 Miss Sales, the choreographer and acrobat, will give private interviews to all patrons who cannot attend this wonderful young woman during the afternoon. The feature selection by the Merrimack Square theatre concert orchestra, on Friday night, will be Andrew Mack's favorite song, "The Beautiful Irish Rose."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

None is at talent the coming three days at the Academy of Music will tend to increase local patronage. For Dave and Emma Bellmore are booked for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This is an act that originated here in Lowell and has been on the road for some time and their comedy, musical work has met with success in every corner of the country. Many Lowell friends are anxious to gauge their ability and they will be put to a severe test. For a real scream in the comedy line, Rayston and Sam, who play here Thursday, Friday and Saturday are regarded as wonders. The older Rayston measures three feet, six inches, while Sam is six feet, three inches, and one can imagine the comedy situations that will arise therefrom. Family that communion with our fellow man, he will undoubtedly be hailed as the evangelist of the stage.

The sale of seats for "The Fortune Hunter" is now going on.

NAZIMOVA

Charles Frohman is to send his remarkable star, the most remarkable in many ways in his entire galaxy, Nazimova, to the Opera House soon in her recent Lyceum theatre success, "The Marionettes," which simultaneously was also a strong success in London. Nazimova has played nothing like it before, and it has shown more conclusively than ever what a significant force she is in the modern theatre. The play is a comedy, one with a strong, serious and a sympathetic interest. A fine company is said to be engaged in Nazimova's support.

THEATRE VOYONS

Today the Theatre Voyons showed for the first time in Lowell authentic motion pictures of William Cardinal O'Connell's return home. His arrival in Boston harbor, the reception on Long Wharf, the parade on State and Tremont streets and the residence of His Eminence all appear in the picture. The cardinal posed twice for this picture on the steps of his home and exceptionally good pictures were obtained. Then exterior and interior pictures of the noted Mission church in Roxbury are included. The balance of the program is exceptionally good with plenty of comedy and a most pleasing musical program.

NEW WAITING ROOM

At Lowell Cemetery is Completed

The ladies' waiting room in the store building of the Lowell cemetery in Lawrence street has been completed. The laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts relative to trespass and injury to cemetery property have been conspicuously posted at different points about the Lowell cemetery. When human beings can bring themselves to steal freshly deposited flowers from a new made grave, it is time for action. The law is very severe following conviction. Law loving and abiding parents will act wisely if the fact is mentioned at the breakfast table. The cemetery trustees are considering the project of moving the dwelling house and stable on Lawrence street to a new location within the cemetery grounds. This proposed move is with a view of improvement of highway conditions in Lawrence street fronting the cemetery. The land between the street and Concord river is owned by the cemetery corporation. By co-operation on the part of the city, the Boston & Maine Railroad Co., and the cemetery, a very noticeable, practical and useful public improvement would be possible, the main feature being the widening of the street.

After the day's work—A plate of hot, savory, satisfying

NONE SUCH SOUP

is just the right start for a good dinner.

At your grocer 10 cents

MERRILL SQUARE CO. SYRACUSE NEW YORK

After the day's work—A plate of hot, savory, satisfying

NONE SUCH SOUP

is just the right start for a good dinner.

Putnam & Son Co
166 CENTRAL ST.

Splendid Savings

In Our Boys' Department

Fine Suits, Norfolk and double breast, sizes 9 years to 17, many made by Rogers, Peel, were $8, $10, $12, now

$6.50

All Wool Suits, sizes 8 years to 17—sold for $5.00 and $6.00, now

$3.50

Long Overcoats for boys 10 years to 17, were $15 and $16, now

$10

Long Overcoats for boys 10 years to 17, sold up to $8.00, now

$5.00

Long Overcoats for boys 10 years to 17, were $5.00 and $6.00, now

$3.50

Russian and Auto Overcoats for boys 3 years to 9, sold for $5.00 and $6.00, now

$3.50

Russian and Auto Overcoats for boys 3 years to 9, sold for $2.50, now

$1.65

Knickerbocker Trousers, new patterns, of smart Scotch chevrons and corduroys, regular $1.00 trousers, special

79c

Fine Polo Caps, blue and brown, trimmed with astrakhan or fur bands, were $1.00 now

69c

Boys' Kangaroo Grain Leather Shoes, double soles, sizes 8 to 13, now

$1.00

Boys' Skating and Storm Boots, long legs, two-strap top, sizes 8 to 10, were $1.75, now

$1.19

BOYS WERE FRESH

TRIED TO PULL LITTLE THEO OUT OF HER BALLOON

While Mayor O'Donnell was listening to the protest of Rev. Mr. Willmott against Sunday concerts in the Star Casino theatre on the ground that the Sunday show drew rough rowdies to the vicinity of the theatre who insulted young women on their way to church, four eminently respectable young men who have been sent to Lowell to acquire an education, were engaged in a rowdy and riotous frolic during the matinee performance which seriously interrupted a portion of the performance. The young men were seated in the orchestra in a large audience of respectable people and when the theatre was darkened to permit Theo to do her balloon act, they took advantage of the darkness to attempt some of their frolic. As Theo soared over their heads they jumped up and grabbing the young woman by the foot nearly pulled her out of the balloon and so interfered with the mechanism of the balloon that she couldn't complete her act. Manager Stevens at once sent them the customary card, notifying them that they were wanted at the manager's office at once. They laughingly disregarded the summons, whereupon Officer Keegan proceeded down the aisle and ordered them to get out of their seats. They obeyed the officer and were ushered into Manager Stevens' private office, where the latter gave them a good talk on rowdiness and respecting the rights of others. All four after listening to him for a few moments apologized profusely and sent in their apologies to Miss Theo. Manager Stevens then permitted them to return to their seats and three went back, the fourth remaining in the rear of the theatre.

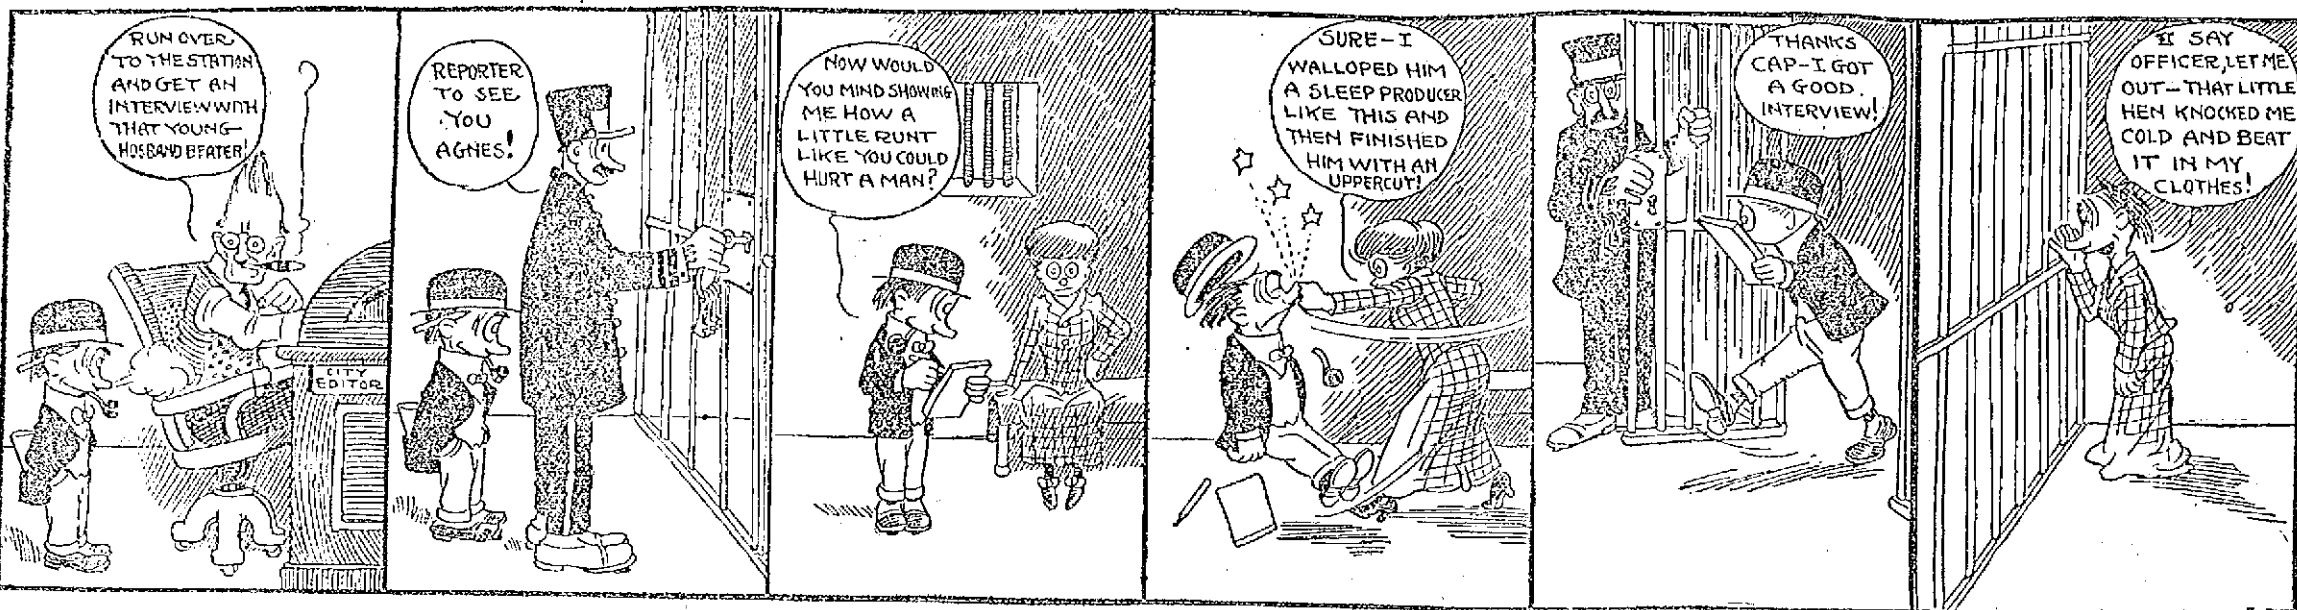

When asked about the incident Manager Stevens said to a reporter of The Sun: "The boys got out of themselves, that was all. I gave them a good talking to and they apologized. I like their business but will not stand for their rowdiness and it matters not to me who their fathers may be or what school they go to, when they enter my theatre they are on equal footing with the others, must behave as the others do and must respect the rights of others. It is the Keith policy that ladies and children may attend the Keith theatres unmolested without fear of being annoyed and that policy goes in Lowell just as firmly as elsewhere."

SCOOP, OUR CLASSY LITTLE REPORTER, INTERVIEWS REAL ROUGH LADY, AND UNCOVERS GOOD STORY

TRIBUTE OF LAITY

Continued

Brilliant Decorations

The banquet hall was handsomely decorated with American flags (cardinal red, the papal colors), and the head table was fringed with garlands of vine and American beauty roses.

Cardinal O'Connell occupied the seat of honor, and to his right was Rt. Rev. Joseph G. Anderson, auxiliary bishop; and on the cardinal's left Henry V. Cunningham, the toastmaster.

Others seated to the right and left of these named were William J. Dooley, James J. McLean, James H. Carney, Mayor John F. Fitzgerald, John A. Brown, Rt. Rev. Edward J. Moriarty, Daniel J. Prendergast, Rev. Joseph P. Coughlin, Hon. Francis X. Sullivan, Hon. Edward F. Kennedy, Hon. John J. McLean, Hon. Eugene N. Toss, James M. Prendergast, Hon. Joseph H. O'Neill, Rt. Rev. Dr. J. J. Supple, Henry P. Nunn, Rt. Rev. Mgr. William C. O'Brien of Lowell, Humphrey O'Sullivan of Lowell, Hon. Charles A. McCauley, Hon. Patrick M. Keating, Hon. Joseph P. Quinn, Mayor James J. O'Donnell of Lowell.

Among the Lowell men at the banquet aside from those mentioned above were: Dr. William T. Carroll, George M. Harrigan, Robert J. Crowley, Geo. C. Dempsey, Daniel J. Donahue, Thomas J. Berghill, James J. Kerwin, John J. Hogan, Mr. Stephen J. Johnson, Charles A. McLean, Frank A. O'Sullivan, James O'Sullivan, James F. Owens, John W. McQuade, Elias A. McQuade, Peter W. Reilly, P. V. Sullivan.

Governor Foss was greeted loudly by the gathering when he was introduced to speak, and his address varying decidedly from the line of thought of the other speakers, was listened to with rapt interest.

The Industrial Problem

The governor declared that the church has a right to survive, and that the solution of the present industrial problem.

Cardinal O'Connell listened with deepest interest to the words of the governor, and when his catholism arose to speak he complimented the chief executive for having brought up the subject as he did.

Mayor Fitzgerald, in answering the toast of the city of Boston was received warmly and frequently applauded during his address. While Hon. Joseph H. O'Neill, speaking for the Catholic laymen, and Hon. Edward F. Kennedy, speaking for the Federation of Catholic Societies, were received with much enthusiasm.

"I bring you the greetings of an old American soldier," he said, toward the end of his address, and these words brought the gathering to its feet with a mighty cheer.

Early in the evening the cardinal took his place in the reception room of the hotel, with Henry V. Cunningham on one side and Bishop Joseph G. Anderson on the other. These he greeted and received the long line of his laity, greeting each one with a smile and a friendly word. With him in the receiving line were the Rev. Joseph Coughlin, pastor of St. Adolph's church, Brookline, and chaplain to the cardinal on the recent trip to Rome; Daniel Prendergast, Mgr.

Spirits and Morality, and William J. Dooley.

Gift of Laity

After his speech an illuminated album in a case of mahogany and containing an address, together with the names of all those present at the dinner, was presented to the cardinal by H. V. Cunningham on behalf of the laity, and a draft for a substantial amount raised by subscription among the diners. "The draft, it is thought, was an amount above $50,000."

Illuminated Address

The illuminated album presented to the cardinal contains the following inscription:

To William, Cardinal O'Connell, congratulation and devotion from the laymen of his archdiocese:

Your eminence, we meet here to extend to you our cordial congratulation upon your elevation to the exalted office of cardinal and to pledge anew our devotion and our homage.

Zealous priest in our midst, rector of the Roman college of our nation, bishop in our province, confidant and archbishop of our archdiocese, we have felt your benign influence, your mild but firm Roman prelate and American citizen, you united our church and our country by inviting Japan in the name of the holy father to join the great family of Christian nations.

Under your wise administration the faith has been upheld, education has been fostered, the care of the sick and the help of the needy through Christian charity have been provided.

You have united us in devotion to the Holy See, and by Catholic federation conserved the welfare of the church and religion.

Priest and teacher, bishop and diplomat, archbishop of this see, your service to the church merits the honor of admission to her court, a place in her senate and a voice in the choice of her pontiff.

America beholds in you a defender of her liberties and a leader who commands respect for law and obedience to authority.

In your high office, we earnestly and fervently offer our sustained support, our encouragement and our prayers.

Governor Foss said, in part: "It gives me pleasure to join with you in extending a hearty welcome to that distinguished citizen and churchman, Cardinal O'Connell."

"During the Spanish war, when Cardinal O'Connell was at the American college in Rome, and when European sentiment was running very high against the United States, and when Americans were even based on the streets of Spanish and Italian cities, a Boston gentleman traveling in Italy called upon the cardinal and was impressed by seeing the Stars and Stripes gracefully draped upon the walls of the cardinal's office. In response to the cardinal's question, 'What is the reason for this?' the gentleman replied: 'I am a patriot and I love my country.'"

"The high honors which have been bestowed upon him reflect great credit not only upon himself, but upon the church organization over which as archbishop he has presided."

"We are today facing an industrial crisis in this state, and every possible means of relieving the distress which it causes must be called into service; but even the temporary assistance of everyone concerned would in no way reach down to the underlying evil which caused this condition."

"I take this occasion to advocate the closer co-operation of the churches in solving these industrial problems, for the industrial field is ripe for the active help of the religious world. 'In my study of the Lawrence strike I have been greatly impressed by the fact that most of the men and women who are now out of work are people who are law-abiding. They are motivated by the desire to destroy life or property, but to protect their families from the necessity of a final appeal to charity. 'I am aware that this discussion does not touch the fundamentals of religious faith, which I leave to others; but I am convinced that I do not know the religious world until I have learned to survive the march of events in this country, must justify itself by the practical application which it makes of its religious principles to the problems of every-day life. 'It is in this direction that I believe the largest measure of human service is to be rendered in religion and the churches, and it is in the direction of world-wide peace that I think there is the greatest hope and the largest opportunity of practical good."

CARDINAL'S ADDRESS

ABLE DISCOURSE OUTLINING CATHOLIC AIMS

After the addresses of Mayor Fitzgerald, Hon. Joseph H. O'Neill, and Hon. Edward F. Kennedy of Brookline, Cardinal O'Connell arose to respond.

As he stood greeted with prolonged cheers he was visibly affected.

"The cardinal, in outlining his remarks spoke of the close relations between the people of the church and the members of his flock. He said that nothing less than the spirit of God bound them together, and that the loyalty of one for the other, through all the centuries of the church's existence, had been stronger and nobler than any mere temporal king had felt for or received from his subjects."

"The reason for this," he said, "is very simple and natural. It is because the churchman literally lives with his flock—their joys are his joys, their griefs are his griefs, their sufferings are his sufferings, and each helps the other to endure."

"No earthly sovereign," said the cardinal, "can ever know as the Christian bishop does the splendid loyalty which is the noble inheritance of those who wear the mitre, not the crown."

Cardinal O'Connell continued as follows:

"Catholic laymen of Boston, I came to you five years ago to begin that work among you which, as your bishop, I was sent to accomplish. You all well know the conditions under which the work was begun, and I think that from the very start you realized that I intended to give myself to it unflinchingly."

"Our fathers had done their glorious share under circumstances seldom favorable, sometimes unpromising."

"They had laid solid foundations, they had planted deep and strong. We came into a noble possession, but there remained much still to accomplish. The traditions of Puritan New England, its iterations of piety and duty, were still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

than law and practice it, and excel in it because he was a Catholic to whom the law of Christ is an inheritance, so that the Catholic doctor should differentiate himself from the pagan physician and show at every bedside the superiority of his mental and moral training and devotion; that the Catholic merchant and man of affairs should compel the recognition due to a Christian conscience; and last, though not least, that those with others of civil trust who bore the responsibility of our good names in the rectitude of their civic righteousness, should bear it to honor, not to degradation."

"No earthly sovereign," said the cardinal, "can ever know as the Christian bishop does the splendid loyalty which is the noble inheritance of those who wear the mitre, not the crown."

Cardinal O'Connell continued as follows:

"Catholic laymen of Boston, I came to you five years ago to begin that work among you which, as your bishop, I was sent to accomplish. You all well know the conditions under which the work was begun, and I think that from the very start you realized that I intended to give myself to it unflinchingly."

"Our fathers had done their glorious share under circumstances seldom favorable, sometimes unpromising."

"They had laid solid foundations, they had planted deep and strong. We came into a noble possession, but there remained much still to accomplish. The traditions of Puritan New England, its iterations of piety and duty, were still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

"Many a good New Englander has declared as much as we do the futility of his iterations of piety and duty, and yet still all about us. Not, perhaps, as the thorny path upon which our fathers trod, bristling with distrust and hate, but somehow, though at times terrible, there nevertheless, manifesting itself in a thousand distasteful and uncomfortable ways in nearly every phase of life. It is hard for any people to realize the enormity of its own prejudices and the injustice of the deductions based upon them."

THE SCHOOL JANITORS

Were Addressed by Truant Officer Thornton Last Night

William F. Thornton, chief truant commissioner and in charge of the janitor department of the Lowell school department, gave an interesting address on "Efficiency of Janitorial Service" before the janitors of the public schools in Lowell last night. Mr. Thornton spoke in his usual interesting manner and his remarks were listened to with great interest by those present.

Mr. John Jacob Rogers of the school committee was present and addressed the janitors. He explained that the other members of the board were absent because of the fact that they had made previous social engagements.

Mr. Thornton's address:

"Tonight I desire to say just a few words to the janitors. At the outset allow me to call to your mind the importance of your calling. The four great links in the chain that performs the work of our important school department are made up of the following: the school committee, its officials, the teachers and the janitors. Each in its own sphere has its allotted duties to perform and the successful performance of those duties can only be accomplished by a unity of action, unity of purpose and a constant striving for the highest possible degree of efficiency by all.

WILLIAM F. THORNTON

No chain is stronger than its weakest link.

No department of public service can ever attain any degree of efficiency unless all of its component parts are systematically working together in such a manner as to leave nothing to be condemned and little to be desired. Perfection is beyond the reach of human kind but a striving towards that perfection is the effort that brings success and reward to the individual who is constant in so doing.

Application, observation and study will bring about wonderful results. The importance of the janitors' department in this city can be appreciated by a few statistics that the superintendent's report of a year ago shows. From this I note the following figures:

Number of school houses in operation, 38; number of school rooms in operation, 305; valuation of said buildings and grounds, $1,558,750; annual expenditure for coal, $16,295.74; supplies for janitors' department, $1,903.31; paid janitors for day schools, $43,342.

These figures in themselves are imposing enough to arrest attention. When you stop and consider the fact that you have, all the year round, the constant care and responsibility of approximately two million dollars worth of people's property, the absolute necessity of making your department one in which the general public will have implicit confidence is apparent to every one of you. That such a confidence can be established rests entirely with you. The successful school is one in which the teachers, the scholars and the janitor, work along in perfect accord.

You are no small instrument in the education of the child. By your example the tender minds of the pupils in your building pick up many things not in their text books. From you they should get examples of good morals, neatness in their work, good order and honorable dealings with their fellows. A good janitor is one who does not content himself with merely performing the duties assigned to him but rather he is one who makes every effort to study his teachers and his scholars so as to bring to them the comforts of a well heated, well lighted and well conducted school.

The janitor should take a personal pride in his work. You must always remember that you have the task of providing for over 17,000 children the very essentials as well as luxuries. Good air for them to breathe, good light for them to see by, good temperature for them to live in and good order for them to work by. Education after all isn't so much the assimilation of knowledge as it is the formation of the child's mind so that the child may be able to decide for himself or herself that which is good and that which is evil.

In bringing about such a result the example of the janitor forms no small part. Never let your work or act allow yourself to say or do anything that you would not say or do with the eyes of the entire community upon you. Treat each teacher and pupil as you would be treated yourself and you will have but little trouble.

In these days of scientific results don't spare yourself the acquiring of such knowledge as will benefit you in your work. In a talk on steam recently given by an expert who kindly addressed you it must have been apparent to everyone who listened to him how much there was to learn and how great would be the benefits to all concerned with such knowledge.

The same is true of many other subjects that come within your work. You cannot acquire too much knowledge of your duties. Above all things don't be stingy with your labor. No man ever either improved himself or the department in which he is working by limiting himself to the prescribed duties of the position. Every man should take a special pride in his work and strive to increase his worth at all times.

Do the little things about your school as faithfully as you do the big things. Go to your work with a liking for it and never become a grrouch. Never grow too big for your job. Always bear in mind this fact, the janitorial force is subservient to that of the teaching force. Preserve good order among your scholars and make them have respect and confidence in you. Don't ever forget this fact, i. e. the child of today is the man of tomorrow and the impressions made on the mind of that child during his school days are the impressions that last all through life.

Frame your conduct so as to take a loving place in the minds of your pupils and your work as a janitor is bound to be satisfactory.

Remember at all times that you are being paid by the school department and your department is entitled to your best efforts. Obey the rules laid down by the school committee and always be willing to assist that body by your work.

Keep your school and grounds neat and clean and endeavor to make them attractive for both pupil and teacher.

Your department costs the city about $65,000 a year for wages and supplies so that you are bound to the city for a great deal. Be not wasteful but on the contrary practice economy whenever practicable. Endeavor to assist the teachers at all times. Don't get riled up at trifles.

Remember this can be taken as an axiom:

Small men are bothered by trifles. A man who has a mind worth considering at all isn't upset and fretted by every little thing that doesn't go right in a school room. The number of times that a man gets into trouble by saying too little against that of saying too much is about one in a thousand. So govern yourself accordingly. These few things to you: First, that you are an important factor in the school department of the city; second,

A LITTLE NONSENSE

STAGE MANAGER—When you say that line, "Save me; I am starving!" make it convincing.

ACTOR—Will; I haven't eaten anything for two days.

MAYBE ARREST AFTER ALL—Bank President—No; the cashier's gone out of town.

Bank President—For a rest, I suppose? Bank President (after a moment's pause)—Whether he's gone for a rest or to escape it.

SAVING UP—Stenographer—The bookkeeper, I think, is going to get married!

Invoice Clerk—How do you know? Stenographer—He was out to work, smokes a pipe and eats ten-cent lunches.

THE USUAL WAY—First War Correspondent—Any news today?

Second War Correspondent—None whatever.

First War Correspondent—Then we'd better cable a revolutionary victory.

WOULDN'T BURN—Green—Sinner is making plans for the future.

Wass-Wall—If he wants to keep them he'd better make them on asbestos.

BE THE GOAT—"You need exercise, old man. Come out and go skating with me."

Why, I haven't been on skates in 24 years.

Well, come right along; I'll get up a party.

that you have many and great responsibilities; third, that facilities in the performance of your duties is the remuneration you owe to your employer and the whole people, and lastly that your conduct and acts will be consistent with the position you occupy. Be square with your associates and with yourself and your work as a janitor will reflect credit upon yourself and upon the department.

CLEVER ACTING

COMEDY FINELY PRESENTED AT HIGHLAND CONG. CHURCH

A laugh provoking comedy entitled "Young Doctor Devine," was presented at the Highland Congregational church last night before a good sized and appreciative audience made up of members of the church and friends. An excellent entertainment program was also carried out and the affair as a whole proved to be a grand success.

The comedy which is in two acts is based on the attempts of several boarding house girls to break the monotony of their life by having all kinds of ailments and making it necessary to call a physician. Believing that it would prove to be some young doctor. The girls are all taken sick and the doctor is sent for but when the M. D. arrives it is found that the doctor is a young woman. The program was as follows:

1—Violin Duet by Benjamin Smithurst and Christopher Hartford with Grace E. Hadley as accompanist.

2—"Young Doctor Devine," a comedy-act, in two scenes.

(a) Scene One, Saturday afternoon at Hillside Seminary. Intermission.

(b) Scene Two, "An Order for a Picture," by Ethel Lombard.

3—Violin Duet by Benjamin Smithurst and Christopher Hartford with Grace E. Hadley as accompanist.

4—Scene One, Saturday afternoon at Hillside Seminary.

5—"Young Doctor Devine," scene, Miss Colburn, Miss Gertrude Bush, Miss Ruth D. Bradley, Miss Louise Rancourt, Miss Pearl Ealy, Miss Jane Fleming, Miss Mabelle Rogers, Miss Jennie Smithurst, Miss Carrie Mountain.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

The members of Industry Council, Red Armament, met in regular session last night in the City Hall. Present: David Hogan president, twelve in all. Applications for membership were received and the class initiation committee reported that the affair would be held on March 6. Under the head of

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE

NEW HOUSE FOR SALE—CIBOLA, just built, 3 rooms, with water and shed, with 6000 feet of land. Inquire E. Christman, 72 Commonwealth st.

NEW TRIM HOUSE FOR SALE—To let, recreation hall, back hall, bath, pantry, all hardwood floors downstairs, furnace heat and 4200 ft. of land, situated near St. Margaret's church and Washington school, will sell cheap if sold at once. Inquire A. A. Brown, 13 Inland st. Tel. 2320.

MERRIMACK STREET INVESTMENT—Property for sale at a bargain. Pawtucketville, 7-room house, 5 min. walk to Pawtucket bridge, $2500. Centralville, two tenements, 5 rooms each, $3200. W. E. Dodge, 22 Central st.

3 Minutes From Westford Street—8 minutes from the depot, on one of the best streets in the Highlands, 2 tenement house of 7 rooms each with bath and pantry, steam heat, cemented cellar, concrete walks, reduced to $1350.

Now is the Time

To buy a New Hampshire farm with large soil orchard. We have a large list to select from.

C. W. Johnson & Son
Houghton, Phipps and Parker Sts.
Phone 3030

and welfare, many interesting remarks were offered by Dr. Joseph Moehan, James Dunn and Edward Boyer. At the close of the meeting a whist tournament was held with teams from Highland council, 370. The winners for the evening were as follows: First prize, Fred Jones and William Carey; second prize, George Guiney and Joe Richardson.

The Foresters—Court City of Lowell, No. 30, F. of A., held a well attended meeting last evening, Chief Ranger John P. Connolly in the chair. He requested all members to attend the next meeting to be held on the 11th inst. committee. It was announced that there would be a union meeting at Foresters hall, Feb. 24, 1912. D. G. C. R. John Barrett spoke on Forestry and his remarks were well received. The treasurer's report showed the treasury in good shape.

The Hibernians—A well attended meeting of Division 2, A. O. H., was held last night in Hibernian hall, President John P. Sheehan occupying the chair. There was a large attendance. Considerable business was transacted. Several propositions for membership were received and four new members were initiated into the order. There were remarks by the newly installed officers of the division. The captain of the LEGAL NOTICES—COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To the heirs-at-law, next of kin and all other persons interested in the estate of Catherine M. Sheehan, also called Katie M. Sheehan and Kate M. Sheehan, late of Lowell, in said County of Middlesex, deceased.

Whereas, a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased has been presented to said Court for probate by Patrick Sheehan, who prays that letters testamentary may be issued to him, the executor therein named, without giving a surety on his official bond.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Lowell in said County of Middlesex, on the twentieth day of February, A. D. 1912, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof by publishing this citation once in each week for three successive weeks in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in said County, the last publication to be one day at least before said Court, and by mailing post-paid or delivering a copy of this citation to all persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, Judge of said Court, this twenty-fifth day of February, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twelve.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, Middlesex, ss. Probate Court. To all persons interested in the estate of Follie M. Varin, late of Paris, France, deceased.

Whereas, Frederick Varin, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented for allowance, the first account of his administration upon the estate of said deceased:

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court to be held at Cambridge, in said County, on the twentieth day of February, A. D. 1912, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be allowed.

And you are directed to deliver a copy thereof to all persons interested in the estate fourteen days at least before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate thirty days at least before said Court.

degree staff announced that the full degree would be worked on the new members at the next initiation, which will be held the third Monday in February. Capt. Patrick Murphy will have full charge of the degree work.

TWO GOOD GAMES

CHELMSFORD—Two close and exciting games of basketball were played at the Chelmsford town hall last evening. In the first contest the Tigers defeated the Pirates by the score of 25 to 23. In the second game the Pirates lost to the Alumni by the score of 23 to 17. There was a large attendance.

HELP WANTED

ALL ROUND MILL MACHINIST wanted. Apply Beaver Brook Mills, Cambridge, Mass.

COMPETENT WOMAN wanted for general housework and answer telephone. Call 111 West st. after six p. m. left hand bell.

RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS WANTED, 20 months. No layoffs. Lowell examinations May 4th. Thousands of appointments coming. Common education sufficient. Pull unnecessary. Candidates prepared free. Franklin Institute, Dept. 155 M, Rochester, N. Y.

HONEST MEN WANTED TO SELL nursery stock; experience unnecessary; salary, $1000 commission weekly. Address, Milburn Advertising Agency, Milburn, N. J.

MEN WANTED TO LEARN THE automobile business; road driving and repairing. Send stamp for particulars. New England Auto School, 509 Tremont st., Boston.

WANTED FOR E. S. ADAMS—ABLE-bodied unmarried men, between 18 and 35; citizens of United States, of good character and temperate habits, who can speak, read and write the English language. For information apply to Recruiting Office, 189 Middlesex st., Lowell, Mass.

SITUATIONS WANTED

OFFICE WORK WANTED BY HELPS young lady. Address X, Sun office.

FREE TO THE SICK

It matters not the name of the disease you are suffering with, how many Physicians you have taken treatment with, do not be discouraged. DR. TEMPLE'S TREATMENT WILL CURE YOU.

All Blood, Nerve and Rectal Diseases, Acute and Chronic Blood Diseases, such as: Eczema, Psoriasis, Scabies, Varicose, Stricture, Prostatitis, Piles, Fistula, Discharges, Ulcers and All Rectal Diseases Without the Use of the Knife. Dismissed of the Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder, Bowels, Rectum, Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, and all other diseases. The treatment is always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated methods and terms. Office, 37 Central street, Boston Block, Wednesdays, 2 to 4; 7 to 9 Sundays, 10 to 12. Other days by appointment only.

TOBACCO TAG OFFER—Under American Tobacco Co. will expire MARCH 1, 1912. You cannot mix all of your tags after March 1. Some tags will have to be sent to P. Lorillard & Co., American Tobacco Co., Legat & Myers, St. Louis, Mo. We will pay tobacco tags until March 1, 1912, 50 cents per 100. After this date some tags will not be worth so much. Full information about tobacco tags at Carr's Pool Parlor, 95 Gosham street, near post office. Telephone 2133-3.

STORAGE FOR FURNITURE—Separate rooms $1 per month for storing 12 two-horse loads. The dryest and cleanest place for storage in Lowell. Telephone connection. O. P. Prentiss, 356 Bridge st.

TO LET

TENEMENT OF 7 ROOMS AND bath, to let, to adults; rent $12. Apply 25 Inland st.

STEAM HEATED FRONT ROOM to let, near business center, 12 Hurd st.

NEARLY FURNISHED ROOMS to let, steam heat and bath, near railroad shed at the Appleton House, 156-162 Appleton st. Under new management.

ROOMS TO LET—HOT and cold water and bath, in good order, at Con. Fayette and E. Merrimack sts. Also 2-room apartment at 125 Fayette st. in good order. Apply to Geo. Hussong 25 Adams st. Tel. 1550-1.

FURNISHED FRONT ROOMS with water and gas, to let from $1 to $1.75 per week, 205 Appleton st.

STORE TO LET in MARSTON bldg., 155 Middlesex st., also steam heated rooms and small tenements for light housekeeping. Apply to Janitor, or Cambridge Bldg.

ROOMING COTTAGE TO LET in Centralville, 5 rooms, with bath, from square rent $11 per month. Inquire 22 West Fourth st.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET by the day or week; also rooms for light housekeeping; gas, light, steam heat, hot and cold water; gas free. J. C. Wood, 400 East Merrimack st.

FURNISHED ROOMS TO LET steam heat, gas, 21 per week up. Mrs. McMillan, Gallagher House, William street.

COTTAGE AND BARN TO LET, 24 Rutland st. Inquire of J. J. Macauliffe, 35 Salem st., or 22 Rutland st.

7-ROOM TENEMENT AT 23 PRINCE street, to let, 2 cottages at 23, Cushing street, 2-room, one 4-room and one 3-room tenement at 143 Elm street, 4-room-4-room flats at 68 Elm st. Cheapest rent. Inquire Joe Flynn, 71 Chapel st.

FIRST CLASS BOARD AND ROOMS to let; steam heat; most desirable residential district of the city; one minute walk from Westford and Cambridge. Inquire Mrs. Nettie Saunders, 55 Gates st. Tel. 2555.

PLEASANT 7-ROOM TENEMENT to let; steam and all modern conveniences. No. 292 Westford st.

MURPHY ROOMING FLAT TO LET on South Loring and State sts. Light, sunny rooms, hard wood floors, steam heat, attractive surroundings; rent $12. 248 Liberty st.

ROOMS TO LET AT 181 EAST MERRIMACK st. Hot and cold water, bath, gas and telephone. Inquire of Undertaker John A. Flanagan, 179 East Merrimack st.

ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, PANTY, bath, hot water, $12, at 165 Grand st. Schultz Furniture Co., 332 Middlesex st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRINGTON bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET AT 550 Princeton st. Call or telephone City Hall Garage.

12-ROOM STEAM HEATED HOUSE to let; bath; at 232 Appleton st. Inquire 1125 Bridge st.

MURPHY ROOMING FLAT IN TWO tenement house on South Loring and State sts. Inquire at The Sun Office.

ROOMS TO LET AT 181 EAST MERRIMACK st. Hot and cold water, bath, gas and telephone. Inquire of Undertaker John A. Flanagan, 179 East Merrimack st.

ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, PANTY, bath, hot water, $12, at 165 Grand st. Schultz Furniture Co., 332 Middlesex st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRINGTON bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET AT 550 Princeton st. Call or telephone City Hall Garage.

12-ROOM STEAM HEATED HOUSE to let; bath; at 232 Appleton st. Inquire 1125 Bridge st.

MURPHY ROOMING FLAT IN TWO tenement house on South Loring and State sts. Inquire at The Sun Office.

ROOMS TO LET AT 181 EAST MERRIMACK st. Hot and cold water, bath, gas and telephone. Inquire of Undertaker John A. Flanagan, 179 East Merrimack st.

ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, PANTY, bath, hot water, $12, at 165 Grand st. Schultz Furniture Co., 332 Middlesex st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRINGTON bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

7-ROOM COTTAGE TO LET AT 550 Princeton st. Call or telephone City Hall Garage.

12-ROOM STEAM HEATED HOUSE to let; bath; at 232 Appleton st. Inquire 1125 Bridge st.

MURPHY ROOMING FLAT IN TWO tenement house on South Loring and State sts. Inquire at The Sun Office.

ROOMS TO LET AT 181 EAST MERRIMACK st. Hot and cold water, bath, gas and telephone. Inquire of Undertaker John A. Flanagan, 179 East Merrimack st.

ROOM TENEMENT TO LET, PANTY, bath, hot water, $12, at 165 Grand st. Schultz Furniture Co., 332 Middlesex st.

ROOMS TO LET IN THE HARRINGTON bldg., 52 Central st. Hard wood floors, steam heat, combination electric and gas lights. Inquire at The Sun Office.

FOR SALE

SCREW CUTTING FOUR POWER lathe and a lot of small tools for sale. Inquire Joseph Moliterna, 72 Waltham street.

RECENT RECORDS OF VARIOUS DEPT. for sale. Inquire P. J. Morris, 141 Ludlow st. Tel. 1885.

HALLOWEEN APPLES FROM RICHARD Farm. Orders of one bushel or more delivered in any part of the city. Tel. 1539, or call 141 Ludlow st. Market.

25 WHITE LITHOPHON COCKRILLS for sale. $1.00 each. 25-ott's strain. Your choice $1. Don't wait till spring and pay $5. Robert Scott, 192 Appleton st., Wapahville.

BAKERS OVENS ON EASY PAY. meals. Start in the business and make money. Write for catalogue and prices. Dept. A. McDowell Oven Co., 156 State st., Boston, Mass.

TWO BRAND NEW HIGH GRADE pianos for sale; must be sold at once. Cash or 3 months. Terms cash. Apply 222 Merrimack st.

SQUARE PIANO FOR SALE, MADE by Leonard Gillott, Boston, Mass. fine tone, all in good shape, with stool. Price $25. Call 55 Third st., Centralville.

SECOND HAND PARLOR STOVES and ranges for sale, in good condition; prices low; also dining tables, chamber sets, etc. H. B. Lambert Co., 334 Bridge st.

HORSES FOR SALE, FROM $60 TO $100. A. B. Humphrey, 257 Gosham st. Tel. 212-2.

FOR SALE—Back Bay lodging house, 10 rooms and bath, well furnished and full of boarders. Inquire J. H. Morris, 5 St. Botolph st., Boston, Mass.

FOR SALE—The best number making boarding house in Lowell. Centrally located, 65 boarders. A bargain on easy terms.

W. E. DODGE
22 Central Street

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY FOR SALARIED PEOPLE—Women keeping house and others, advance on their salaries, security, easy payments, cheapest rates. Don't worry or annoy friends about money. Keep your credit good by paying as you go. I will advance you money 1 to 60 H. H. Tolman, Room 193, 45 Merrimack st.

LOANS
of $10 and Upwards

Can be secured at less than the legal rate of interest by obtaining our Indorsement of your note.

American Credit Co.
45 MERRIMACK STREET.
ROOMS 319-320
Open 8 a. m. to 6.30 p. m.; Mon. Wed. and Sat. 9 p. m.

LOST AND FOUND

PAIR OF SHU-ON EYEGLASSES lost in Wilson st., near Grand st., Feb. 2. Finder please return to 25 Wilson st.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS (100 $100) lost on Friday, Jan. 26, between City Hall theatre and Prescott st., via Central st. Finder please return same to 4 Corn place and receive a reward.

STRING OF DARK BLUE BEADS lost. Finder please return to 722 Merrimack st. and receive reward.

POCKETBOOK FOUND THURSDAY afternoon in vicinity of Merrimack St. Owner can have same by proving property and paying for this ad. at Carr's, Princeton and W. J. Morris, North Chelmsford, Mrs. C. Grillehere.

500 OF MONEY LOST MONDAY morning between Gosham, Central and Bridge st. Reward for return to 157 Gosham st. Alfred Lambert.

MISCELLANEOUS

RADGES MADE TO ORDER razors honed and sharpened; clips sharpened at Harry Gonzales, 125 Gosham st. Tel. 252-2.

DRINK GLORIA FOR HEALTH. Sold everywhere.

SPECIAL NOTICES

WATCHES, CLOCKS AND JEWELRY cleaned and repaired. English watch repairing a specialty. 23 years experience, 8 years with the Waltham Watch Co. J. H. Collett, 491 Middlesex st.

SAFETY RAZOR BLADES SHARP—ened cut like new; 25c each. Carter & Sherburne's drug store.

WILL COLLECT YOUR RENTS for 5 per cent. By our system we keep you free of tenants' trouble. Address H. M. Lowell, Mass.

SKATES HOLLOW GROUND knives and skis sharpened, grinding and key fitting at Harry Gonzales, 125 Gosh

